TO: PRESIDENT CARTER
FROM: HAMILTON JORDAN

As you know, Al Moses is on board to do the old Ed Sanders job. From all that I can tell, Al will be as effective as Ed in communicating with the Jewish community for us. He will take a lot of beatings on our behalf and needs to be perceived as being fully involved in things here.

He was quite properly excluded from the meeting this morning. He does not and should not be involved in policy sessions. However, I would strongly recommend that you schedule a ten minute appointment with him to brief him on what it is we will do beyond the 26th. This is very, very important for him and us as the person responsible for communicating with the Jewish community. I'd like to schedule this tomorrow or Wednesday so that it can appear on your public schedule.
