

Jimmy Carter Library & Museum News Release

441 Freedom Parkway, Atlanta, GA 30307-1498
404-865-7100

For Immediate Release

Date: January 9 , 2006

Contact: Tony Clark, 404-865-7109

Tony.Clark@NARA.gov

Release: NEWS06-02

President Carter to Autograph Copies of Our Endangered Values

Book-signing at Carter Library on January 19th

Atlanta, GA.- President Jimmy Carter will sign copies of his #1 best-selling book “Our Endangered Values” at the Carter Presidential Library on Thursday, January 19th at 6 p.m. Specially-priced copies of “Our Endangered Values”, as well as copies of President Carter’s other books will be on sale at the library gift store. Only BOOKS written by President Carter will be signed. Because of the number of books to be signed, the President will not be able to personalize books.

President Jimmy Carter Book-Signing

Thursday, January 19th

6 p.m.

Carter Presidential Library and Museum

The Carter Center is also hosting a “Conversation” with Dr. Donald Hopkins, the Associate Executive Director for Health on January 19th, so there will be limited parking at the Carter Presidential Center. Parking is available at the Martin Luther King Visitor Parking (Boulevard & John Wesley Dobbs Avenue). A free shuttle will be available between the King Center parking and the Carter Center starting at 5 p.m. The shuttle will operate at twenty-minute intervals.

Photography will not be permitted at the book-signing. Cameras and camera-phones will not be allowed. Visitors are encouraged to leave backpacks at home or in their car.

For more information on President Carter’s book-signing, call 404-865-7101 or visit www.jimmycarterlibrary.gov