Celebrate the 4th at the Carter Presidential Library “Flag-Flyin’ Tales”

Atlanta, GA.- Celebrate the 4th of July at the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum. After the Peachtree Road Race and your neighborhood parade, bring a picnic lunch and enjoy the beauty of the Carter Presidential Library grounds for a family picnic.

Then, at 2 pm, come inside the Carter Presidential Museum for "Flag-Flyin' Tales for the Fourth of July." Again this year, the Southern Order of Storytellers will perform patriotic tales that are fun for the whole family. Hear tales of "Me 'n the Redcoats", "Windy, Wormy Wiley, American Hero" "The Christmas Visit" and "America the Beautiful."

The performance is included at no extra charge with your paid museum admission. Children 16 years old and younger are always free.

Before or after the performance, take your family on a fascinating walk through history in the Carter Presidential Museum. Step into an exact replica of the Oval Office; see historic photographs, documents, and elaborate state gifts.

The Carter Presidential Library is the perfect way to spend the 4th of July.
