Atlanta, GA.— The Carter Presidential Center is sparkling with fall colors. Leaves are golden yellows and radiant reds. There are berries on the bushes and in the trees. The skyline of downtown Atlanta is reflected in the lower lake.

Bring your camera and capture the spectacular views around the Carter Presidential Center. Pick your best photo or two and email it to us between now and December 1st. The best photos of the Carter Presidential Center grounds will be displayed in the lobby of the Carter Presidential Museum throughout the holiday season.

To enter, email your digital image to tony.clark@nara.gov. By entering your photo you are giving the Carter Presidential Library permission to print and display your photo. Anyone can enter.

Come to the Carter Presidential Library today. Visit the rose garden. Stroll along the lakes; sit beside the Japanese garden. Discover Atlanta's hidden treasure... the grounds of the Carter Presidential Center.
