“Securing the City: Inside America’s Best Counterterror Force--The NYPD”

Atlanta, GA.- The Carter Presidential Library presents Newsweek correspondent Christopher Dickey, discussing his new book Securing the City: Inside America’s Best Counterterror Force-The NYPD on Monday, February 9th at 7 pm in the museum theater. The reading, co-sponsored by A Cappella Books, is free and open to the public. Following his talk, Dickey will be available to sign copies of his book.

Securing the City is a superb investigative reporter's stunning look inside the real world of cops who are ready to take on the world and at the ambiguous price we pay for the safety they provide. The New York Post says “In this well-crafted account, Dickey weaves strands of various threats abroad - the fanatical plotters and their often bizarre, seemingly inept plots - into New York’s vast, complex urban landscape. He outlines the "cat-and-mouse games" that the NYPD played in 2003 with suspected agents attached to Iran's UN mission in New York - which one senior NYPD official concludes was aimed at "getting their people used to operating in New York City."

You won’t want to miss this fascinating look into the world of counterterrorism. Copies of “Securing the City” will be for sale at the event. Doors open at 6:30 pm. For more information, call 404-865-7109.
