DON'T MISS "THE DEVIL'S TICKETS" READING & BOOKSIGNING ON MONDAY

Atlanta, GA.- Here's what critics are saying about Gary Pomerantz's new book "The Devil's Tickets". See for yourself when Gary Pomerantz comes to the Carter Presidential Library, Monday June 22nd at 7pm. The reading and book signing are free and open to the public.

"Bridge and murder, two of mankind's most engrossing pursuits—in The Devil's Tickets, Gary Pomerantz intermingles both to create a crackling portrait of a vibrant past age and a singular moment when a bullet trumped all." - Erik Larson, author of the New York Times bestseller, THE DEVIL IN THE WHITE CITY.

"A great story, a real drama, a perfect window on American culture -- and best of all, beautifully written with the lightest touch." - Susan Orlean, author of the New York Times bestseller THE ORCHID THIEF.

"Masterfully reported, beautifully written, and all but impossible to put down, the book is a marvelous work of narrative non-fiction. An unforgettable read." - Jonathan Eig, author of New York Times bestseller LUCKIEST MAN: The Life and Death of Lou Gehrig.

"Gary M. Pomerantz's fascinating The Devil's Tickets [is] a true-crime story, sure, but it's much more . . . Pomerantz paints detailed portraits of his subjects as well as a nuanced picture of America as the Roaring Twenties crashed into the Great Depression." The Richmond Times-Dispatch.

"Consistently absorbing and entertaining... Pomerantz artfully explores a number of surprisingly inter-connected themes - bridge, murder, sex, and the roaring 1920's. Even with such a winning hand a lesser writer might have stumbled. It's a testament to Pomerantz's narrative gifts that THE DEVIL'S TICKETS is a triumph." - Howard Blum, author of the New York Times bestseller AMERICAN LIGHTNING.

Joining Pomerantz at the reading will be National Book Award finalist, Melissa Faye Greene. Greene is a regular contributor to The New York Times Magazine and Good Housekeeping and is the author of "There Is No Me Without You: One Woman's Odyssey to Rescue Africa's Children," "Praying for Sheetrock," "Last Man Out," and "The Temple Bombing".
