JIM WALLIS COMING TO CARTER LIBRARY THIS FRIDAY FREE READING & BOOK SIGNING FOR "REDISCOVERING VALUES"

Atlanta, GA. Meet bestselling author and public theologian Jim Wallis at the Carter Presidential Library this Friday, February 5th at 7pm. Wallis is president and CEO of Sojourners and is an international commentator on religion, public life, faith, and politics. His new book Rediscovering Values: On Wall Street, Main Street, and Your Street provides a moral compass for these new economic times. The reading and book signing is free and open to the public. ACappella Books will be selling copies of Rediscovering Values at the reading. Seating is first come-first seated. Doors open at 6:30pm.

Mike Gerson, chief speechwriter to President George W. Bush and author of Heroic Conservatism says "One does not need to agree with Jim Wallis on everything to find Rediscovering Values insightful and timely.... This is a needed voice at a challenging time."

Michael J. Sandel, New York Times bestselling author of Justice: What's the Right Thing to Do? says "This wise and hopeful book points us toward a new economy and a more spiritually satisfying public life."

Don't miss this opportunity to hear what David Saperstein, the Director and Counsel of Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism calls "one of America's most thoughtful, provocative and powerful prophetic voices."
