1. How did President Carter’s actions to resolve the Iran Hostage Crisis align with executive powers as outlined in Article II of the U.S. Constitution?
Background Information

The summary below is for background information. Analysis of it is not required and will not count toward the required documents.

When Jimmy Carter became President in 1977, the United States had provided political support and military assistance to the government of the shah of Iran for nearly three decades. In return, Iran provided oil to the industrial West and served as a buffer between the Soviet Union and other oil-producing nations of the Persian Gulf. The United States had a stake in keeping it stable and independent, but the shah was feeling the consequences of years of brutal and unpopular policies. His control of Iran was being threatened by a political and religious activist, the Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, who opposed the shah’s efforts of modernization and Westernization.

In January 1979, the shah fled into exile, and the theocratic regime of Khomeini took power. The Carter administration made efforts to establish diplomatic relations with the new government but was met by resistance. Negotiations deteriorated in October 1979 when Carter, citing “humanitarian principle,” permitted the shah to enter the U.S. for cancer treatment. Though deeply opposed to this U.S. move, the new Iranian prime minister gave assurances that their government would protect the safety of U.S. diplomatic personnel in Iran.

On November 4, 1979, more than 3,000 students overran and occupied the American embassy in Tehran, initially taking 66 U.S. diplomatic and military personnel as hostages; 52 would ultimately be held. Opposing this action, the Iranian prime minister resigned in protest, consolidating Khomeini’s control of the government. The students demanded a return of the shah in exchange for the hostages. In April 1980, after months of negotiations failed to result in the release of the hostages, the United States broke off diplomatic relations with Iran.

By 1980, Carter’s staff lamented there were “Two White Houses,” one handling the Iran Hostage Crisis and the other consumed with everything else. That year, Carter approved a hostage rescue mission, but it failed, and the crisis continued as he campaigned for re-election. The government of Iran, now involved in a war with neighboring Iraq, was desperate for money and seemed willing to release the hostages. After losing his bid for re-election, Carter worked tirelessly up until the day of Ronald Reagan’s Inauguration ceremony on January 20 to secure their release. That morning Carter announced that the United States and Iran had reached an agreement. At 12:33 pm, the first plane carrying hostages took off from Tehran, with the second leaving nine minutes later. The Hostage Crisis in Iran concluded after 444 days.

Situation in Iran as of 0700 EST November 4, 1979

At about 0345 EST (Noon Tehran time) the American Embassy compound in Tehran was overrun by about 3,000 demonstrators. The demonstrators inside the compound are unarmed, in their early twenties. They may be a mixture of students and members of the Islamic guerilla group Mujahedin Khalg. The demonstrators first penetrated the Chancery building through a basement window and then proceeded to occupy the ground floor of the Chancery. The demonstrators in the early stages of the incursion took hostage four Marine Security Guards and the Embassy Security Officer. Our Charge and Political Counselor happened to be at the Foreign Ministry at the time of the attack. They and the Embassy contacted the Prime Minister's Office and were promised that Iranian security forces would be sent to the rescue. No help came, and the Embassy after an hour's siege, including attempts to set the building on fire and the use of a torch to try to cut through the upstairs steel doors, found it necessary to let the demonstrators in on the upper floor.

At that time there were about 80 Embassy employees, American and Iranian in the Chancery. Another group of employees was under siege in the Consular Section, a separate building on the compound. When the demonstrators entered the second floor of the Chancery, the Embassy employees were led out. 11 Americans remained in the Communications vault but have subsequently surrendered. Current reports indicate that all of the hostages are being kept within the compound.

Charge Laingen is now in Foreign Minister Yazdi's office. Yazdi indicated they are attempting to despatch Ayatollah Behesti to the compound to speak with the demonstrators. The Embassy compound is surrounded by unidentified security forces.

Two people from the Foreign Office have been sent to the compound to get in touch with the demonstrators.
At this time, there are no reports of any injuries to Amcits. The British Embassy in Tehran reports that a news bulletin has been issued indicating all Americans are safe. The bulletin also urged other students not to join the demonstration.

The occupying students have issued a statement demanding the extradition of the former Shah. The statement described the occupation as a protest against the conspiracies of imperialism and Zionism. The students called on other student groups not to try to enter the compound.

TEXT OF KHOMEINI'S MESSAGE ON HOSTAGE SITUATION

LD101200 TEHRAN DOMESTIC SERVICE IN PERSIAN 1036 GMT 10 MAR 80 LD

(TEXT) FOLLOWING THE JOINT SESSION OF THE REVOLUTION
COUNCIL AND THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, WHICH TOOK PLACE
THIS MORNING IN THE PRESENCE OF IMAM KHOMEINI AT HIS TEMPORARY RESIDENCE, THE LEADER OF THE REVOLUTION
ADDRESS AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO THE IRANIAN NATION.

IN CONNECTION WITH THE U.S. HOSTAGES OF THE FORMER
U.S. EMBASSY, THE LEADER OF THE REVOLUTION Addressed A MESSAGE TO THE IRANIAN NATION AS FOLLOWS:

IN THE NAME OF GOD, THE MERCIFUL, THE COMPASSIONATE,
MOABLE AND STRUGGLING NATION OF IRAN. CRIMES COMMITTED
BY THE SHAH AND THE UNITED STATES NEED NO PROOF,
THE SHAH AND THE UNITED STATES MADE US DEPENDENT IN ALL
FIELDS: MURDER, VILIFICATION, IMPRISONMENT AND EXILE
WERE COMMON PRACTICE FOR THESE CRIMINALS, WE SHALL FIGHT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT TO THE END OF OUR LIVES.
WE SHALL NOT REST UNTIL WE PUT THE UNITED STATES IN ITS PLACE;
CUT OFF ITS HANDS FROM THE REGION, HELP ALL LIBERATION
FIGHTERS TO DEFEND IT AND ENABLE THE IRANIAN
PEOPLE TO TAKE OVER THEIR OWN DESTINY.

TO US THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE AGGRESSIVE
EAST AND THE CRIMINAL WEST. WE SHALL FIGHT AND, AS JUSTICE SHALL PREVAIL, WE SHALL TRIUMPH. U.S. DOMINATION
ENTHILLS CALHITY FOR ALL THE OPPRESSED NATIONS, THE AGGRESSION COMMITTED BY THE AGGRESSIVE EAST HAS DISGRACE HISTORY.

DEAR IRANIAN NATION: BEHOLD, AS WE HAVE LONG YEARS
OF STRUGGLE AHEAD OF US, TO DESTROY YOU, THE SUPERPOWERS
ARE ENGAGED DAILY IN PLOTS. THE DEVIL'S MISCHIEF
HARM THE OPPRESSED. (PREVIOUS SENTENCE IN ARABIC--FBIS)
The question raised nowadays is the united states and the
AMERICAN HOSTAGES AND SPIES WHO ARE HELD BY THE MUSLIM
AND STRUGGLING STUDENTS. IN THIS CONNECTION I SHALL MAKE A FEW POINT:

--Approved For Release 2005/01/30: NLC-6-31-2-2-7--
1. Copies of the approved for release 2005/01/30: NLC-6-31-2-2-7 available to the commission of inquiry into the crimes committed by the U.S. government and the Shah. As for the Muslim students, if they too have any evidence, then they should provide copies to the commission.

2. The meeting with the hostages involved in compiling (FBI) the dossier on the crimes committed by the Shah and the United States can take place for the purpose of their interrogation.

3. If the commission of inquiry announces its views in Tehran about the crimes committed by the ousted Shah and the interferences by the aggressive United States, then a meeting with the hostages (as heard) can take place.

Once again I declare my support for the revolution council and his excellency the president and call on everyone to help them and spare no efforts in supporting them. I want all strata to follow the praiseworthy Islamic ethics and safeguard fraternal rights.

My dear sisters and brothers: today is the day of unity and unanimity. Today is the day when, if you fail in your unity, then you will be trapped either by the East or the West. Never adhere to a single idea; do whatever serves the interest of this land, the Islamic nation. The movement of the noble nation of Iran continues to cut off the hands of the enemies, so long as the United States and other superpowers continue with their oppression and crimes; our nation too will continue its confrontation and struggle against them while safeguarding its comprehensive independence with all its might.

It is up to the intellectuals to increase their efforts in exposing the superpowers and powers. I hope that Khomeyni will never deviate from the straight path of Islam, which is fighting against the oppressive powers; and will never rest in realizing Islamic goals. As I hope our Muslims; especially the struggling Iranian nation, will endeavor toward achieving this Islamic goal and continue their struggle against the oppressors of the East and West.

I pray to God Almighty for the victory of Islam and the Muslims. God bless you all.

(Signed) Ruhollah Mosavi Khomeyni. 10 March 1980.
