Follow-Up Activity

What Primary Sources Will Tell Your Extraordinary Life Story?

1. Review the presentation, paying close attention to the different types of primary sources highlighting President Carter’s Life.

2. Think about your current life goals and ambitions and imagine what examples of photographs, artifacts, documents, posters, artwork, audio or film will exist for researchers to access to learn your life story; these can be actual sources that already exist, or theoretical ones in the future.

3. Choose one of these sources that is most meaningful to you and either create it, or if it already exists, provide a copy for submission to be shared with the class (physical or digital format acceptable).

4. Students will choose two of their classmates’ primary sources and complete the appropriate Document Analysis Worksheet for their skill level and source type, followed by group discussion.
