Scope and Content:
   This collection consists of correspondence, memoranda, notes, speeches, briefing material, reports, daily schedules, telephone logs, legislative testimony, speeches, press releases, photographs, newspaper clippings, and printed material. The material relates to all aspects of domestic policy including civil rights and justice, human resources, energy and natural resources, banking and housing, governmental reform, and regulatory reform. The collection also includes a voluminous amount of correspondence and memoranda from government agencies and other White House staff offices.

Creator Information: Domestic Policy Staff
   The Domestic Policy Staff was established in the Executive Office of the President by Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1977, effective March 26, 1978, pursuant to E.O. 12045 of March 27, 1978, which re-designated the Domestic Council, and transferred all the functions of the Office of Drug Abuse Policy and the Economic Opportunity Council.

   The Domestic Policy Staff formulated and coordinated all domestic policy recommendations to the President. It assessed national needs and coordinated the establishment of national priorities; provided rapid response to Presidential needs for policy advice on pressing domestic issues; and maintained a continuous review of ongoing programs from a policy standpoint. The Domestic Policy Staff operated through a series of ad hoc project or interagency committees which were set up to deal with broad program areas or specific problems. The staff worked closely with Federal agencies and other White House staff units including the Office of Intergovernmental Affairs, the Congressional Liaison Office, the Council of Economic Advisors, the White House Press Office, and the Office of the Chief of Staff. The Staff was headed by Executive Director, Stuart E. Eizenstat, who was the Assistant to the President for Domestic Affairs and Policy.
The Domestic Policy Staff was organized into special units called “clusters,” which handled specific domestic issues. These clusters included: Civil Rights and Justice, Governmental Reform, Human Resources, Energy and Natural Resources, and Special Projects.

In 1981, the Domestic Policy Staff was re-designated as the Office of Policy Development.

Biographical information on key office personnel is located at the end of the finding aid.

Stuart Eizenstat's Alpha Files
Scope and Content: Containers 28-84. This series was opened in 1987. This series consists of correspondence, memoranda, notes, clippings, and printed material. This material contains copies of Eizenstat's form letters and individual responses to a wide variety of questions regarding the administration's positions on various domestic and foreign issues. Also included are copies of the correspondence of several staff members, including David Rubenstein, Ralph Schlosstein, and Joanne Hurley. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Stuart Eizenstat's Chronological Files
Scope and Content: Containers 85-102. This series was opened in 1987. This series primarily consists of electrostatic copies of Eizenstat's outgoing correspondence with individuals and groups [e.g., congressional delegations). With the exception of the 1976 folders, there is no incoming material. The series also contains copies of the correspondence of several staff members, including David Rubenstein, Ralph Schlosstein, and Joanne Hurley. Arranged chronologically.

Stuart Eizenstat's Form Letters Files
Scope and Content: Containers 103-114. This series was opened in 1987. This series consists of copies of form letters sent by Eizenstat's office to Representatives, Senators, the general public, and interest groups in response to correspondence received concerning particular domestic issues. Some of the folders contain a copy of each form letter sent and others contain only a single copy and a mailing list. Incoming correspondence is not included with all of the letters. A significant amount of material deals with child nutrition, youth employment, and energy issues. Arranged alphabetically by folder title and there under chronologically.

Return to Series List
Stuart Eizenstat's Reference Letters Files
Scope and Content: Containers 115-117. This series was opened in 1987. This series consists of reference letters, correspondence, reports, memorandums, and press clippings. The material was organized by Eizenstat's staff as a collection of background material to be used in drafting responses to correspondence on various issues. The letters are primarily from private citizens and Eizenstat's friends. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Stuart Eizenstat's Memoranda Files
Scope and Content: Containers 118-127. This series was opened in 1987. This series consists largely of memoranda, but also contains reports, speech drafts, executive orders, briefing material, and notes. The materials represent every area of domestic policy as an overview; however, the files do not provide much detail on the related topic. From this series the researcher can get an overview of domestic issues and the policy options surrounding them, but should not expect to gain much insight into a particular topic. The material dated 1976-1977 covers transition issue positions, scheduling, and personnel decisions. Arranged chronologically.

Stuart Eizenstat's Resume Files
Scope and Content: Containers 128-135. This series was opened in 1987. This series primarily consists of resumes but also letters of recommendation for individuals seeking employment in the Executive Branch of the federal government. Also included are vitae, SF 171's (standard forms for federal employment), and letters of applications and recommendations. This entire series is closed in accordance with the donor's deed of gift. Arranged alphabetically by folder title. Container 135 is arranged chronologically.

Stuart Eizenstat’s Subject Files
Scope and Content: Containers 136-324. This series was opened in 1987. This series consists of correspondence, memoranda, speeches, reports, notes, clippings, and printed material. This material relates to all domestic issues ranging from the AFL-CIO to youth employment. There is voluminous material dealing with agriculture, health care, education, energy, civil rights, economics, the federal budget, labor, urban policy, welfare reform, and government reorganization. There is some foreign policy material relating to international trade, economics, imports, and SALT II. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Diana Elmes’ Subject Files

Biographical Information

Elizabeth Abramowitz

Elizabeth Abramowitz, an educational psychologist, served as Assistant Director of Education and Women’s issues in the Human Resources Cluster of the Domestic Policy Staff from March, 1977 to September, 1979.

Before coming to work on the Domestic Policy Staff, she was a Senior Fellow at the Institute for the Study of Educational Policy at Howard University in Washington D.C. She authored several monographs and two books on equal educational opportunity in higher education. At Howard University, Dr. Abramowitz also taught graduate courses in educational research.

Robert Berenson

Robert “Bob” Berenson was born in Elizabeth, New Jersey in 1946. He is a graduate of Brandeis University (B.A., 1968); Rutgers University School of Medicine (M.M.S., 1970); and Mount Sinai School of Medicine (M.D., 1972.) He served his medical internship in Bronx, New York at Montefiore Hospital.

Berenson was appointed to the position of Assistant Director of the White House Domestic Policy Staff in July of 1979. Previously he had served as a Domestic Policy Staff consultant, beginning in July of 1977. From July 1975 to June 1977, he served a residency at George Washington University Hospital, Washington, D.C. Berenson worked as a part-time staff physician for the George Washington University Health Plan from 1973 to 1979; additionally, he was an Assistant Professor of Medicine at George Washington University’s School of Medicine from 1977 to 1979. Berenson also served as a medical officer for the Bureau of Health Services of the Health Services Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare from 1973 to 1975.

Berenson was responsible for review and policy formulation in areas such as Medicare, hospital cost containment, chiropractic practices, and the 1980 Olympic Boycott, amongst others. He is the author of several works on health care. He helped to prepare for the First National Conference on Physical Fitness and Sports. Among his professional memberships, he has been a member of the American College of Physicians and the American Public Health Association.

Lynn Daft

Lynn Daft is an agricultural economist and marketing systems specialist with a particular interest in the interaction of policy, economics, and market factors. Lynn has wide farm and food policy experience, serving at a senior position in the Carter White House in the Domestic Policy Staff for agricultural policies. He has also worked in the Office of Management and Budget, the Congressional Budget Office, and the Office of the Secretary of Agriculture. Lynn has a BS in agricultural economics from Ohio State University, a MA from the University of Massachusetts, and a PhD from Michigan State University.
Christopher Edley

Christopher Edley, Jr. was assigned to the White House as Assistant Director, Domestic Policy Staff (Human Resources). Internal evidence within the collection indicates that he served in the Carter Administration from 1977 until 1979. During his tenure, he appears to have reported directly to Stuart Eizenstat. Edley worked with human interest issues, such as minority issues, social security, welfare, and welfare reform. Specifically, he was involved with Low Income Energy Assistance, the Minority 8(a) Program, Minority Business Enterprise Programs, in addition to legislative aspects of all of these issues.

Stuart E. Eizenstat

Stuart Eizenstat was born in 1943 in Chicago, Illinois. He served as a congressional intern for Representative G. Elliot Hagan (Democrat - Georgia) in 1963. In 1964, he received his B.A. at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He was also a Special Assistant to the President of Young Democrats of America and speechwriter and staff assistant to Postmaster General Gronouski.

In 1967, he received his L.L.B. from Harvard Law School, while working as a speechwriter and research assistant to President Lyndon. B. Johnson from 1967-1968. He was also the research director for Vice-President Hubert Humphrey’s presidential campaign. From 1969-1970, he served as Law Clerk for Chief Judge Newell Edenfield, U.S. District Court, Northern District of Georgia.

In 1970, he was the issues director during Jimmy Carter’s gubernatorial campaign and worked for the law firm of Powell, Goldstein, Frazer and Murphy in Atlanta, Georgia until 1976. During this period he also was the issues director for Andrew Young’s congressional campaign in 1972 and the issues director for Maynard Jackson’s mayoral campaign in 1974.

From 1974-1975, he served as an advisor to Jimmy Carter during his early presidential bid, and in 1976 he became the Director of the Issues and Policy Office for the 1976 Carter/Mondale Campaign Committee. He was also a member of the State Democratic Charter Commission from 1975-1976.

He served as Director of Policy and Analysis and Agency Liaison for the Carter-Mondale Transition Planning Group from November 1976 through January 1977. From 1977-1978, he served as Assistant to the President for Domestic Affairs and Policy. In July of 1978, he was appointed as Director of the Domestic Policy Staff in the Carter Administration.

In 1981 he went back to work for the law firm (in Washington, D.C. Office) of Powell, Goldstein, Frazer & Murphy.

Ellen Goldstein

Ellen Goldstein attended Ohio State University and received her B.S. in Education in June 1970. She attended Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., and received her M.A. in history in 1974. She worked as Director of the Issues/Research Library for the Democratic National Committee from 1974-1977. She served as an Assistant Director of the White House Domestic Policy Staff during the administration of President Jimmy Carter from 1977-1978.

Joshua Gotbaum

Joshua Gotbaum was an Associate Director, Economic and Tax Policy, in the office of Domestic Policy Staff. He was appointed to the position May 18, 1980 and served until January 1981. Before Gotbaum’s appointment to the DPS office he had been a consultant and Executive Assistant to Alfred E. Kahn, Chairman of the Council on Wage and Price Stability, Office of the Chairman, The White House. He served as advisor to the President on inflation, 1979-80. Gotbaum had been a consultant to Local 692, United Food and Commercial Workers Union Workers. He also served as Special Assistant to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy Analysis, U.S. Department of Energy.

The Domestic Policy staff was responsible for analyzing and coordinating policies concerning specific domestic issues. Gotbaum worked on several specific issues concerning the economy and various Federal agencies’ budgets for the fiscal year 1982. Gotbaum also worked with issues concerning the steel industry and several other industries.

Orin Kramer

Orin Kramer graduated from Yale College and Columbia Law School. He was associated with the New York City law firm of Simpson Thacher and Bartlett. He also served as Executive Director of the New York State Commission on Living Costs and the Economy, Executive Assistant to the State Treasurer of New Jersey, and lectured on public finance and tax policy at Rutgers Law School and Columbia Law School. His studies on public finance have appeared in New York Times and the New York Law Journal. In 1977 he became Associate Director of the White House Domestic Policy Staff. He was the senior member of the staff with respect to banking and finance, housing and community development, municipal finance and urban economic development.

Simon Lazarus

Simon Lazarus served as Associate Director for the Domestic Policy Staff from 1977-1981. After leaving the White House he worked as a partner in Powell, Goldstein, Frazer, and Murphy LLP from 1981-2002, and as Senior Counsel to Sidley, Austin, Brown and Wood LLP in 2002. He is a Trustee of the Center for Law and Social Policy, and writes frequently on issues of law and policy.

Myles V. Lynk

Myles Lynk is a graduate of Harvard College and Harvard Law School. He has served as a law clerk to the Honorable Damon J. Keith of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, and during the Administration of President Carter he served as a Special Assistant to the U.S. Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and as an Assistant Director on the White House
