Identification:

Accession Number: 84-01

National Archives Identifier: 589918

Scope and Content:

This collection consists of press wire copies, notes, transcripts of interviews, taped interviews, speeches, and news reports. The material relates to David Guth's accumulation of press articles and interviews during the 1976 presidential campaign. The collection also includes transcripts and audio cassettes of his personal interviews of both Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter.

Creator Information: David W. Guth

David W. Guth was born in Baltimore, Maryland. He received a BA in Radio/Television/Speech from the University of Maryland at College Park in 1973. Following his graduation from college, he worked for two years as an announcer at radio stations in Kentucky and Indiana. He served as News Director for two radio stations in Georgia during the period of Jimmy Carter's 1976 primary and presidential campaign. His position at these two stations, WDEC Americus and WXLX Milledgeville, allowed him to closely follow the rise and eventual victory of President Carter.
