Robert Jerome Lipshutz was born in Atlanta, Georgia in 1921. He graduated from Boys High School in 1939, and earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Georgia. Lipshutz was awarded a law degree from the University of Georgia Law in 1943. He served in the United States Army from 1943-1946. By 1947, Lipshutz was practicing law in Atlanta.

His longtime political alliance with Jimmy Carter began in 1966 when he met and worked for Carter during his first campaign for Governor of Georgia. Lipshutz also worked with Carter during the 1970 gubernatorial campaign. After the successful election, Carter appointed him to the Georgia State Commission on Compensation in 1971, and to the first State Board of Human Resources in 1972.

Lipshutz chaired the 1973 National Democratic Telethon and became a member of the Georgia fundraiser for the Democratic National Campaign Committee in 1974. He worked as treasurer of the Carter/Mondale 1976 Presidential Campaign Committee throughout the presidential election season. Following Carter's election, Lipshutz served as Counsel to the President from January 21, 1977 until September 30, 1979. Lipshutz resigned from the White House on August 10, 1979. He returned to practicing law in Georgia, although he continued to advise Carter throughout the remainder of his administration. Upon Lipshutz's return to Atlanta, he became involved with the establishment of the Carter Presidential Library and the administration of the Jimmy Carter Personal Assets Trust.
