Accession Number: AV 89-6

The Roddey E. Mims collection consists of negatives, slides, and photographs depicting a detailed record of Washington, D.C. between 1976 and 1982. Included are images of Congressional meetings, Senate hearings, and White House receptions. Mims concentrated on personalities rather than surroundings, so many senators, representatives, ambassadors, and cabinet members are pictured, as well as the First Family. He covered John Connally's 1976 presidential campaign, Capitol Hill, and the White House during the Carter and Reagan administrations.

Creator Information: Mims, Roddey E.

Roddey E. Mims was born in Arkansas Pass, Texas in 1936. In 1954, Mims worked for the Odessa (Texas) American newspaper. He joined UPI in Dallas in 1956, and became the UPI New Orleans Chief in 1961. In 1962 and 1963, Mims won "Picture of the Year" for General News, and in 1965, he won for General Features Photography. In 1975, he worked as a free-lance magazine photographer. In 1977, he became a contract photographer for Time magazine.
