Creator Information: Walter Mondale

Walter Frederick ("Fritz") Mondale was born in Ceylon, Minnesota on January 5, 1928. He spent his boyhood in the small town of southern Minnesota, where he attended public school. After he helped manage Hubert H. Humphrey's first successful U.S. Senate campaign in 1948, he earned his B.A. in political science from the University of Minnesota in 1951. After completing service as Corporal in the U.S. Army, Mondale received his LL.B. (Cum Laude) from the University of Minnesota Law School in 1956. He also served on the law review and as a law clerk in the Minnesota Supreme Court.

Mondale practiced law for the next four years in Minneapolis, Minnesota. In 1960, Minnesota Governor Orville Freeman appointed him to the position of State Attorney General. Mondale was elected to the Senate in 1966. During his 12 years as a Senator, Mondale served on the Finance Committee, the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, Budget Committee and the Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee. He also served as the Chairman of the Select Committee on Equal Education Opportunity and as the Chairman of the Intelligence Committee's Domestic Task Force.

Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale were elected President and Vice President of the United States on November 2, 1976. On the President's behalf, Mondale traveled extensively throughout the country and the world advocating the Carter Administration foreign policy. He was the first Vice President to have an office in the White House, and he served as a full-time participant, advisor, and troubleshooter for the Administration.

In 1984, Mondale was the Democratic Party's nominee for President of the United States. Following his election loss, Mondale practiced law, taught, studied, traveled, and served as a director of both non-profit and corporate boards. From 1986 until his appointment as Ambassador in 1993, Mondale served as chairman of the National Democratic Institute for International Affairs, a Washington, D.C. based organization that conducts non-partisan international programs to help maintain and strengthen democratic institutions. He returned to his native Minnesota in 1987, where he practiced law with the firm of Dorsey and Whitney until President Clinton nominated him to be the U.S. Ambassador to Japan.

Mondale served as Ambassador to Japan from August 13, 1993, to December 15, 1996. Vice President Mondale is married to the former Joan Adams. They have three children, Theodore, Eleanor Jane, and William. They also have three grandchildren.

Vice President Mondale has authored the book The Accountability of Power: Toward a Responsible Presidency and has written numerous articles on domestic and international issues. In his free time, he enjoys fishing, reading Shakespeare and historical accounts, barbecuing, skiing and tennis.

Restrictions:

Restrictions on Access: These papers contain documents restricted in accordance with applicable executive order(s), which governs National Security policies, applicable statutes/agency restrictions, and material which has been closed in accordance with the donor's deed of gift.

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction: Copyright interest in these papers has been donated to the United States Government. Some of the records may be subject to copyright restrictions (i.e. newspapers, publications, etc.). Researchers should contact the publisher for further information.

Acquisition information: These historical materials were received under provisions of the instrument of gift that Jimmy Carter signed January 31, 1981.

Processing information: The first series of the collection was opened in July 2003. The open dates are indicated in the series descriptions. Declassification of classified documents will continue through mandatory review requests and systematic declassification programs. Closed folders are designated in RED, while open folders are designated in BLACK.

NOTICE: Folders containing dated withdrawal sheets-typically with the date being handwritten and located at the bottom of the sheet-have been opened for research on that date; however, it should be noted that not all withdrawal sheets will bear such a date and some documents in said folders might have been brought forward to the open folders prior to the withdrawal sheet's date. This is in part due to changes in staff processing workflow over the years. Documents listed on withdrawal sheets closed for national security reasons and can be requested for Mandatory Declassification Review.

NOTICE: Many documents from these series can be searched on-site at the Library via the CREST (CIA Records Search Tool), which is a keyword-searchable computer system of digitized documents predominantly from the NSA series that were previously withdrawn for national security concerns and have since been scanned for the RAC (Remote Archives Capture) project and are now released-in-full or released-in-part.

System of Arrangement:

Arrangement Note: The Jimmy Carter Library has kept the files in their original order. It is important that the researcher familiarize themselves with the series descriptions within this document. Many of the files are arranged chronologically or alphabetically. The staff chose to retain the original order as it demonstrates administrative characteristics of the Vice President's office. In some series, like the Overseas Trips, the chronological order demonstrates the exact sequence of events, even though the folder titles do not reflect this.
