Quantity: 68 linear feet; 56 linear feet, 5 linear inches open for research, 129 containers

Identification:

Accession Number: 80-1

National Archives Identifier: 5803332

Scope and Content:

This collection consists of legislative bills, correspondence, memoranda, annual reports, presidential signing statements and announcements, proclamations, executive orders, vetoes, and press releases. The material relates to the Executive Clerk's office that is in charge of collecting all documents signed by the President that form his official public actions.

Creator Information: Office of the Executive Clerk

The Executive Clerk's Office is responsible for seeing that all bills received from Congress are documented; keeping watch on the time limit for vetoes, and delivering the veto back to Congress. This office is also responsible for delivering any communications the president wishes sent to Congress. The Executive Clerk was responsible for the preparation and disposition of all official Presidential documents, such as nominations submitted to the U.S. Senate, commissions of appointments, acceptance of resignations, executive orders, proclamations, messages to Congress, and memorandums from the President to units of the Executive Branch. In addition, the Executive Clerk served as the official point of receipt for formal documents from the Congress.

Tom Jones served as Executive Clerk during the entire Carter administration. During the Carter administration the Executive Clerk's office operated under the White House Office of Administration.

System of Arrangement

The records of the Office of the Executive Clerk are divided into two series:

Series Titles:	National Archives Identifier
Tom Jones's Legislative Bills, Reports and Announcement Files	583262
Tom Jones's Enrolled Bills Files	16494821

Detailed Description of the Collection

Tom Jones' Legislative Bills, Reports, and Announcements Files, 1969-1981

Scope and Content: Containers 1-40. This series was opened in 2014. This series contains draft bills, vetoed bills; and presidential reports to Congress. Also included are annual reports to the President from various departments and agencies spanning three administrations, mainly from the Carter Administration. In addition, the series includes computer indexes (printouts) of Presidential reports to Congress; executive orders; presidential announcements and proclamations; and reports or messages to and from the President concerning the federal budget. Arranged chronologically.

Tom Jones' Enrolled Bills Files, 1977-1980

Scope and Content: Containers 41-129. This series was opened in 2014. This series contains signed bills, vetoed bills, and memoranda to the President from senior White House officials. The memoranda relates to individual bills, Presidential signing statements, and official disapprovals or endorsements of bills from the heads of federal government departments and agencies to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget. Also included are House of Representatives and Senate reports on each bill and press releases about newly signed bills. Although the majority of the bills sent to the White House for Presidential action concern government operations and amendments to existing laws, approximately one fifth are private bills, introduced by Congressmen and Senators to aid individual constituents. Arranged chronologically.
