Scope and Content: Containers 211-225. (Container 231 contains oversize files that were transferred to end of the series.) This series was opened in 2012. The series includes correspondence, memoranda, invitation lists, comment responses, reports, and other printed material. The material mainly relates to her role as coordinator of meetings and briefings regarding public relations programs. These programs were set up for pressure groups involved in various current issues. These documents cover topics associated with youth issues, registration/draft, student leadership briefing, and education day. Arranged alphabetically by folder title and there under chronologically.

Heather Pars' Windfall Profits Tax Files

Scope and Content: Containers 226-231. This series was opened in 2012. The series includes correspondence, memoranda, invitation lists, and reports. The files consist primarily of materials related to the Windfall Profits Tax debate. Arranged alphabetically by folder title and there under chronologically.

Return to Series List

Harolyn Landow's White House Conference on Small Business Files

Scope and Content: Containers 232-241. This series was opened in 2012. The series includes correspondence, memoranda, invitation lists, briefings, reports, presentations, and other printed material. The material mainly relates to her role as coordinator of meetings and briefings regarding small business. These programs were set up for pressure groups involved with small business issues in 1979-1980. These documents cover topics associated with trucking deregulation and small business. Arranged alphabetically by folder title and there under chronologically.

John Ryor's Subject Files

Scope and Content: Containers 242-253. This series was opened in February 2016. The series includes briefings, memos, press clippings, program flyers. The material relates to issues such as education, economic policy, budget, and youth employment. It also includes a study of public attitudes toward the military draft, economic renewal plans, listings of various organizations' delegates attending White House events, and budget reviews for various departments. In addition, this series contains material relating to the passage of domestic violence legislation S 1843, Energy Security Act S.932, and the Youth Act of 1980. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Allison Thomas' Subject Files

Scope and Content: Containers 254-282. This series was opened in April 2016. The series consist of briefings, memoranda, press clippings, guest lists, program flyers, and other print material. The bulk of this material in this series addresses the concerns of various political groups, particularly the gay community. Arranged alphabetically by subject.

Phillip Spector's Files

Scope and Content: Containers 283-304. This series was opened in May 2016. The series includes correspondence, memoranda, briefing schedules, presentations, invitation lists, reports, publications and magazine articles. The material relates primarily to his role as a coordinator of briefings for state and local community leaders and other influential groups on such domestic and foreign policy issues as energy, hospital cost containment, inflation, the normalization of relations with the People's Republic of China and the Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty (SALT II) between the United States and the Soviet Union. Arranged alphabetically by folder title and thereunder chronologically.

Richard Reiman's Subject Files

Richard Reiman's Chronological Files

Scope and Content: Containers 324-339. This series was opened in June 2016. The series consists of briefings, memoranda, press clippings, meeting minutes, guest lists, program flyers, and other printed material. The bulk of the material are meetings and briefings that cover such topics as small business, professional organizations, unions, business tax, financial institutions, Chamber of Commerce, and energy. Arranged chronologically by date.

Return to Series List

Sharon M. Schroer's Files

Scope and Content: Containers 340-363. This series was opened in June 2016. The series consists of correspondences, memorandums, mailgrams, attendee lists, invitee lists, regret lists, and publications. The bulk of the materials are responses to White House Briefing invitations. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Charles Atkins' Files

Scope and Content: Containers 364-377. This series was opened in July 2016. The series includes correspondence, memoranda, briefing books, presentations, invitation lists, reports, speeches, and publications. The material documents Charles Atkins participation in several outreach groups formed to promote the President's programs dealing with such issues as energy conservation, inflation, the environment, foreign assistance, and fundraising for the U. S. Olympic Committee. Other material documents his coordination of White House briefings and conferences on these and other issues and Presidential signings of important bills. Folders marked (Spector) are apparently holdovers from his predecessor in the position, Phillip L. Spector. Arranged alphabetically by folder title and thereunder chronologically.

Michael Missal's Subject Files

Scope and Content: Containers 378-387. This series was opened in 2016. The series consists of correspondence, memoranda, mailgrams, attendee lists, invitee lists, regret lists, and publications. The bulk of the materials are responses to White House Briefing invitations. Topics includes natural gas and energy. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Richard Brancato's Subject Files

Scope and Content: Containers 388-404. This series was opened in August 2016. The series consists of correspondence, memoranda, briefing books, reports, invitation lists, publications and articles. The bulk of the material is concerned with promoting the President's energy conservation program in the residential, agricultural and transportation areas. Much of the correspondence is between the White House and corporations promoting their energy conservation proposals and/or measures they have taken to conserve energy in accordance with the President's program. Other topics covered are inflation, windfall profits tax on the oil industry, the national health plan and the federal budget. Arranged alphabetically by folder title and thereunder chronologically.

Bruce Katz's Subject Files

Scope and Content: Containers 405-410. This series was opened in 2016. The series includes memorandums, correspondence, briefings, invitee lists, notes, agendas, and forms. The vast majority of the materials relates to youth affairs, youth programs, and youth policies. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Jane Hartley and Mike Missals' Subject Files

Scope and Content: Containers 411-416. This series was opened in August 2016. The series consists of correspondence, memoranda, reports, invitee/attendee lists, publications, and articles. The material largely documents Hartley's and Missal's work arranging invitee/attendee lists for White House briefings and signing ceremonies for important bills. Topics covered include inflation, energy (natural gas and windfall profits tax on the oil industry), urban policy, welfare reform, the federal budget, foreign assistance, and foreign economic policies. Also included are White House events concerning the normalization of Sino-American relations in December 1978, and Chinese Vice-Premier Deng Xiaoping's official visit in January - February 1979. Arranged alphabetically by folder title and thereunder chronologically.

Jim Scott's Files

Scope and Content: Containers 417-423. This series was opened in September 2016. The material includes correspondence, memorandums, reports, briefings, newspaper clippings, proposals, agendas and publications. This material relates to the public outreach effort involved in gaining support for President Carter's main policy programs; anti-inflation programs; wage and price programs; and trucking deregulation. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Joe Norton's Subject Files

Scope and Content: Containers 424-425. This series was opened in November 2016. The series includes correspondence, memoranda, reports, briefings, and publications. All the material relates to SALT, which were kept before the withdrawal of January, 1980. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Margaret "Midge" Costanza's Subject Files

Scope and Content: Containers 426-428. This series was opened in November 2016. The series contains correspondence, telegrams, post cards, notes and memorandums. The bulk of the materials are anti-amnesty regrets, with a large response coming from the various American Legion Posts throughout the United States. In addition there are responses from the general public on President Carter's Amnesty Program. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Margaret "Midge" Costanza's Personal Files

Scope and Content: Containers 429-431. This series was opened in November 2016. The series contains correspondence, cards, books, gifts and publications. The majority of the correspondence are letters of congratulations to Margaret Constanza on her new position at the White House. Arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Anne Wexler

Anne Wexler was Assistant to the President of the United States. Appointed to the White House Senior Staff by President Carter on May 1, 1978, she was responsible for developing and administering efforts to support and carry out Presidential priorities including the involvement of interested groups and individuals in the making and implementation of policy.

Prior to her appointment, she had served as Deputy Under Secretary of Commerce since January 1977. At the Commerce Department she was responsible for the coordination of the Department's programs and field operations, and also acted as Special Assistant to the Secretary for Regional Economic Coordination and as Chairperson of the President's Task Force on Women Business Owners.

Before joining the Commerce Department, Wexler was Associate Publisher of Rolling Stone magazine, supervising the circulation, subscription, promotion and production functions of the publication. She was also responsible for research on new acquisitions and corporate diversification, and directed magazine syndication operations.

During the 1976 Presidential campaign, Wexler was active in number of capacities, as a member of the Carter/Mondale campaign's National Steering Committee, the Democratic National Committee Campaign Committee, and the National Committee's Voters Registration Task Force, as floor leader for Jimmy Carter at the Democratic National Convention; and as his representative in the 1976 Democratic Rules Committee. She also served on the National Committee's Education and Training Council.

She was a member of the Charter Commission of the Democratic National Committee in 1974-75, and of the Democratic Campaign Committee for the 1974 elections. She was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1968 and 1972, a member of Convention Rules Committee those two years, and a floor leader in 1972. She was chief consultant to the Commission on Party Structure and Delegate Selection from 1969 to 1972, on Connecticut's Democratic State Committee on Election Law Reform in Connecticut in 1969, and on the National Municipal League Policy Committee's Elections Systems Project in 1971.

In 1970, Ms. Wexler served as Director of the Voting Rights Project for Common Cause. In 1973, she was Fellow of the Institute of Politics, John F. Kennedy School of Government, and Harvard University.

Ms. Wexler served on the Westport, Connecticut, Zoning Board of Appeals from 1966 through 1971, and in 1967 was also on the Board of Directors of the Connecticut Mental Health Association.

Born in New York City on February 10, 1930, she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Skidmore College in 1950. In 1972, she received the Outstanding Alumna Award from Skidmore.

Ms. Wexler is married to Joseph D. Duffey, Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities. They have four sons: David and Daniel Wexler, Michael and David Duffey.

Robert Lee (Bob) Maddox

Robert Lee (Bob) Maddox was born April 14, 1937. He obtained a B.A. degree from Baylor University, Texas, in 1959 and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1963. He then obtained a Doctorate in Sacred Theology from the Candler School of Theology of Emory University, Atlanta, in 1975. After pastorates at various Baptist churches in Texas, Florida and Georgia, he joined the Carter White House staff in May 1979 as Special Assistant for Religious Liaison. This was part of the Office of Public Liaison, headed by Anne Wexler. He had been a speech consultant for the White House previously, and wrote the draft for the Mid-East Peace Treaty signing. After leaving the Carter White House at the end of the administration, he returned to his ministry in Calhoun, Georgia.

Jane Hartley

Jane Hartley graduated from Boston College (Newton College) with a B.A. in Political Science and Economics. Ms. Hartley worked in the White House as Deputy Assistant to President Carter, under Anne Wexler, in the Office of Public Liaison. She also served as Director of Congressional Relations at the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Michael H. Channin

Michael H. Channin served as Deputy Assistant to Anne Wexler, Assistant to the President, from May, 1978-1981.
