Records of the Presidential Personnel Office (Carter Administration): A Guide to Its Records at the Jimmy Carter Library

Collection Summary

Creating Organization: President (1977-1981: Carter). Presidential Personnel Office

Title: Records of the Presidential Personnel Office

Dates: 1977-1981

Quantity: 371 linear feet, 9 linear inches; 32 linear feet, 5 linear inches open for research;
74 containers

Identification:

Accession Number: 80-1

National Archives Identifier: 592621

Scope and Content:

The collection contains correspondence, lists, memoranda, resumes, reports, publications, and press releases compiled by staff of the Presidential Personnel Office (PPO). The materials include information on individuals whose positions were subject to presidential appointment, such as those on commissions, boards, committees, councils, agencies, and other organizations.

The material covers the steps involved in the appointment process, including:

- the search for potential appointees;
- the screening process used to evaluate candidates and solicit opinions;
- the processing of clearances, such as security and conflict of interest;
- preliminary and final recommendations;
- the appointment itself; and
- resignations and subsequent replacement appointments.

Creator Information:

The Presidential Personnel Office was responsible for presidential appointments. It reviewed candidates, conducted interviews, evaluated recommendations from members of Congress and other interested parties, communicated with departments and agencies on personnel matters, and helped ensure that the personnel priorities of the Carter administration were being addressed. (It should not be confused with the White House Personnel Office, which managed career White House employees and detailees from other government agencies and provided personnel support for the White House staff.) It was headed by a director, and other staff included a deputy director, assistants, and staffing specialists.

Detailed Description of the Collection

Job Files

Scope and Content: Containers 1-64. This series was opened in December 2017. The series consists of correspondence from members of Congress, copies of presidential appointment letters, lists of candidates and appointees, resumes, recommendations, remarks, interview evaluations, resignation letters, memoranda, reports, publications, and press releases. The Presidential Personnel Office maintained these files to collect materials related to the staffing of commissions, boards, committees, councils, agencies, and other organizations composed of individuals whose positions were subject to presidential appointment. Among the recommendations are numerous notes and letters from members of Congress regarding positions sought by constituents. The selection and appointment process are evident from the files, and there are many examples of efforts to create a diverse and inclusive administration. Arranged alphabetically by acronyms.

NOTE: Due to the potentially sensitive nature of some of this material, records will be served to researchers at the folder level.
