Creator: Stiles, Robert K.

Title: Robert K. Stiles Collection

Dates: 1975-1980

Quantity: 13 linear feet, 29 containers

Identification:
  Accession Number: AV 92-1
  National Archives Identifier: 12015388

Scope and Content:
The Robert K. Stiles collection consists of still photographs, audiotapes, negatives, and textual material. The material dates from 1975-1982. The materials document Robert Stiles career as a photographer, director, and producer, especially in the field of Democratic political campaigns and public service during the Carter Administration. The collection materials relate to his work in these two areas.

Included in this collection are five different types of material: approximately 800 rolls of 35mm photographic film negatives, 119 audiotapes, several hundred photographs, 7 notebooks of color contact sheets, and textual material.

Creator Information: Robert K. Stiles

Robert K. Stiles was a photographer, cinematographer, director, and producer. He was also an engineer, and a teacher of mathematics, science, photography and filmmaking. Many of his photographs have been published in books and magazines. Since 1974, he owned his own company specializing in public service and political campaigns. Most of his work was in creating and producing broadcast materials for Democratic members of the U.S. Congress from 1974-1982. In 1978, he worked on the re-election campaigns of Robert Giaimo, Richard Bolling and Robert Edgar. He also produced a documentary film for Congressman Fred Richmond. He has produced slides, films, poster designs, campaign films and radio and TV spots for more than fifty congressmen and senators.

Detailed Description of the Collection

Robert K. Stiles’ Textual Files
Scope and Content: Containers 1-3. This series was opened in 2000. This series contains correspondence, proposals, reports, scripts, data, announcements, and notes. The material includes correspondence between Robert Stiles and Congressional members; election and polling data on candidates; daily conversation notes; radio and TV scripts; editing files; and Federal Election Commission (FEC) records on various candidates. Arranged by type of material.

Robert K. Stiles’ Unnumbered Negatives, Slides, and Photographs Files
Scope and Content: Container 3. This series was opened in 2000. This series contains negatives, photographs, slides, and transparencies of various congressmen and actors used in public service announcements. Also included are transparencies of radio and TV scripts, negatives, and photographs of the Giaimo budget hearings. Unarranged.

Robert K. Stiles’ Audiotape Files
Scope and Content: Containers 4-11. This series was opened in 2000. This series contains audiotapes including 119 ¼” sound tracks for radio, film, or video projects produced by Robert Stiles. The majority of tapes are political commercials for Democratic candidates, predominantly Dick Bolling, Robert Edgar, Bob Giaimo, and Max Baucus. Other tapes include personal film projects and advertisements; public service announcements such as energy conservation; the Bert Lance public hearings; budget committee hearings; and rule committee hearings. Arranged by tape number.

Robert K. Stiles’ Negative Files
Scope and Content: Containers 12-26. This series was opened in 2000. This series contains negatives including 35 mm black and white and color negatives representing Robert Stiles work with members of Congress. Many of the negatives are of congressional members that include their personal portraits, family member portraits, and members of Congress at speaking events and campaign activities. The negatives also capture other functions such as committee meetings, special events such as the “Harvest Meal; Metro Ballet performances, weddings, the capitol building, and other events. The negatives are arranged by the original numbering system. V and M numbers represent color negatives; U-numbers represent both color and black and white negatives; C- numbers are color negatives; and the remaining numbers with no preceding letter, are black and white negatives. Arranged chronologically by year, and there under by negative number.

Robert K. Stiles’ Photograph Files
Scope and Content: Containers 27-29. This series was opened in 2000. This series contains approximately 200 black and white and color photographs. The photographs are mainly of congressional members. Other photographs include function shots, such as Harry Chapin performing at the “Harvest Meal,” ballet ensembles, Congressional hearings, and photos taken at public buildings. Many of the photographs are oversized with heavy cardboard backing. Arranged alphabetically by subject or by surname.
