

Jimmy Carter Library & Museum News Release

441 Freedom Parkway, Atlanta, GA 30307-1498
404-865-7100

For Immediate Release
Date: March 14, 2008
Contact: Tony Clark, 404-865-7109
Tony.Clark@NARA.gov
Release: News08-07

One of Atlanta's Prettiest Parks Burst into Bloom

Celebrate Spring at the Presidential Park at the Carter Library

Atlanta, GA.— Enjoy the beauty and serenity of one of Atlanta's most beautiful parks this Spring. The 35 acre Presidential Park that surrounds the Carter Presidential Library and Museum is an oasis just minutes from downtown Atlanta.

Already, the trees are budding in greens, pinks and whites. The tulips, daffodils and hyacinths are blooming alongside a thick carpet of green grass.

Ducks and geese swim in the Carter Center's two lakes.

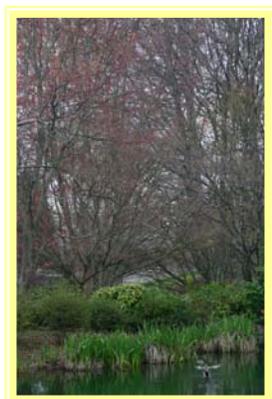

The Japanese garden, which will soon be a burst with bright azaleas, offers a peaceful place to relax. Escape the traffic and hectic pace of life in Atlanta and listen to the soothing sounds of the water as it cascades down the waterfall.

Parking and access to the ground are free at the Carter Presidential Library and Museum. There are picnic tables on the grounds or you can enjoy a lakeside lunch at the Copehill Café.

Come and enjoy the beauty that is springtime in Atlanta at the only Presidential Library in the Southeast. For more information, call 404-865-7100 or visit www.jimmycarterlibrary.gov.

All these images were shot on March 14, 2008.. and its just going to get prettier