CARTER LIBRARY HOSTS AUTHOR LECTURES & BOOK SIGNINGS

PRESIDENT JIMMY CARTER, HERSCHEL WALKER, MARY TILLMAN HEADLINE SUMMER EVENTS

Atlanta, GA.- President Jimmy Carter is just one of a list of bestselling authors coming to the Carter Presidential Library for book signings or lectures in the weeks ahead. Here's a list.

Tuesday, April 15th ...7 pm.. Carter Center Day Chapel...Richard Cohen...author of "Strong at the Broken Places." This is the remarkable story of five ordinary people trapped in the complex world of serious chronic illness. Cohen will discuss his book, lead a panel discussion with some of the individuals profiled in the book and have a book signing.

Thursday, April 17th ...7 pm...Carter Library Theater...Jay Allison...producer of the radio series "Stories from the Heart of the Land." Allison, who is known for his NPR series "This I Believe", presents a series of radio stories that show the ties between people and the land. These are fascinating "driveway moment" stories you won't want to miss.

Friday, April 18th ...7 pm...Carter Library Lobby...Herschel Walker signs copies of his new book "Breaking Free." Football player Herschel Walker will sign copies of his new biography about living with Dissociative Identity Disorder. Reservations Are Required. In order to reserve a place in line, you MUST pre-purchase "Breaking Free" from A Cappella Books (404) 681-5128. Limit of 3 books per person. Walker will ONLY SIGN COPIES OF "Breaking Free" from A Cappella Books. He will not sign other items.

Tuesday, April 22nd ...7 pm...Carter Library Theater...Kevin Phillips...author of "Bad Money. Reckless Finance, Failed Politics, and the Global Crisis of American Capitalism." In "Bad Money," Phillips describes what he sees as the consequences of misguided economic policies, mounting debt, collapsing housing market, threatened oil, and the end of American domination of world markets. Following the reading, Phillips will sign copies of his book.

Wednesday, April 23rd ...5:30 pm...Carter Library Lobby...President Jimmy Carter will sign copies of his new biography "A Remarkable Mother." To allow the President to sign as many books as possible, he will ONLY SIGN BOOKS he has written; he will not personalize books, he will not pose for photos. The President will sign up to five books per person, per trip through the line. You can go through the line again. Each group of books to be signed must include at least one copy of "A Remarkable Mother".

Tuesday, May 13th ... 7 pm...Carter Center Day Chapel...Mary Tillman, author of "Boots on the Ground by Dusk: My Tribute to Pat Tillman." This is a mother's loving tribute to her son. Alongside fond memories and recollections of Pat's charismatic bluntness and self-sacrificing nature, Mary details her family's exhaustive search for the truth about her son's tragic death in Afghanistan. Her reading will be followed by a book signing.
