November is Author Month at the Carter Library

ATLANTA, GA.- Mark your calendar for some exciting author readings/ book signings. Here's the line up:

Nov. 1 at 6pm Andrew Young & Kabir Sehgal Walk In My Shoes-Conversations Between a Civil Rights Legend and His Godson

Ted Turner will moderate the discussion

"This brilliant, courageous, and intelligent man has stood for right and for Civil Rights for all people. In this book, we can follow the development of a young African American mind and the development of the movement which changed this country. He was brave, he was loving, and he was there.

Thank God he lived to tell about it."—Maya Angelou

Nov. 10 at 7pm C.J. Chivers The Gun

Pulitzer Prize-winning New York Times reporter CJ Chivers provides a fascinating history of machine guns, from the mid-19th century to modern warfare. Library Journal calls it a "gripping and original interpretive history, highly recommended.

Nov. 11 at 7pm Curtis Wilkie The Fall of the House of Zeus

The Fall of the House of Zeus tells the story of Dickie Scruggs, arguably the most successful plaintiff's lawyer in America. Scruggs made a fortune taking on mass tort lawsuits against "Big Tobacco" and the asbestos industries. Scruggs' legal triumphs rewarded him lavishly, and his success emboldened both his career maneuvering and his influence in Southern politics—but at a terrible cost, culminating in his spectacular fall, when he was convicted for conspiring to bribe a Mississippi state judge.

Nov. 16 at 7pm James Zogby Arab Voices: What They Are Saying to Us, and Why it Matters

"Jim Zogby has written an essential and enlightening book on Arab opinion. Arab Voices is a must read for anyone who wants to hear true voices from the Arab world."--Her Majesty Queen Noor of Jordan

Nov. 18 at 7pm Salman Rushdie Luka and the Fire of Life

"A celebration of storytelling, a possible prequel to the book Rushdie is said to be writing about his own enforced "slumber," and a colorful, kick-up-your-heels delight." Kirkus Review

Tickets available at Acappella Books 404-681-5128

COMING IN DECEMBER

Dec. 2 at 7pm Rosalynn Carter Within Our Reach

Dec. 7 at 7pm Michele Norris The Grace of Silence
