the screening.

Revolutionary America was a place of extraordinary paradox. America's Founding Fathers were men yearning for a nation of individual liberty and unprecedented independence.

Indeed the phrase "all men are created equal" is the most powerful ideal that comes out of the American Revolution. But, at the time of the writing of this phrase, the origins of America were already seeded with a cruel paradox because many of the liberty-loving Southern Founding Fathers were also slave owners — including Thomas Jefferson, George Washington James Madison and Patrick Henry.

Travel with us back in time to better understand the men responsible for America's greatest victories—and most heinous sins. Watch as "Liberty & Slavery" explores the paradox of America's Founding Fathers being champions of liberty — and yet simultaneously champions of slavery.
