In addition to the thousands of Happy Birthday wishes sent online, friends and neighbors in Plains, GA. staged a drive-up birthday parade for the President. And as you can see, he was having a good time (as were the participants)

New Films About President Jimmy Carter

This is Barbara Kopple's documentary detailing the failed mission to free the Americans held in Iran in 1980. The Chicago Sun Times says... "You're awestruck by the bravery and dedication of the Armed Forces personnel who risked and, in some cases, gave their lives in an effort to pull off a daring rescue mission. You feel a hurricane of emotions watching Barbara Kopple's brilliant and searing documentary "Desert One," which arrives some 40 years after Operation Eagle Claw, one of the most tragic failed military missions in American history." Variety says, “Jimmy Carter: Rock & Roll President” is a documentary of infectious and lively nostalgia that’s about just what its title says: the fact that Jimmy Carter became the first U.S. president to express, in ways both big and small, a profound affinity with rock ‘n’ roll culture. Yet in telling that story, the film touches on something larger — the way that alliances in America that may seem unlikely come to seem inevitable. It’s about the forces that have to come together to make America work. Details at...
