Carter Museum Celebrates Veterans Day

Specials in Honor of Veterans Day

Atlanta, GA. – The Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum celebrates Veterans Day with a FREE weekend for Veterans and their immediate family. Free admission to our award-winning museum is available to veterans on Saturday, November 10 and Sunday, November 11th.

In addition, the Carter Presidential Library will host a special free author program on Wednesday, November 14th at 7pm. Graham Plaster and Lisa Freeman (Gold Star Mother) will discuss and sign “In the Shadow of Greatness: Voices of Leadership, Sacrifice, and Service from America’s Longest War.”

This collection of personal stories, compiled by members of the United States Naval Academy Class of 2002, chronicles some of the most compelling war experiences from among their classmates, the first to graduate and serve after 9/11. As the mission of Annapolis is to “graduate leaders who are dedicated to a career of naval service,” these 33 firsthand experiences both demonstrate the depth of that commitment and the diversity of what is meant by “naval service.”
Publishers Weekly

Tom Brokaw, NBC newsman and author of The Greatest Generation says “This is a must read for all Americans--an up close and personal account of duty and sacrifice by graduates of the U.S. Naval Academy in Iraq and Afghanistan. You’ll stand a little straighter when you mingle with these remarkable fellow citizens.”

Copies of “In The Shadow of Greatness” will be available for purchase and signing.
