July Author Program at Carter Library

Atlanta, GA. – We have a great line-up of authors coming to the Carter Library in July. Take a look.

July 9 at 7:00 pm...George Ciccariello-Maher...We Created Chávez: A People's History of the Venezuelan Revolution

July 16 at 7:00 pm...Adam Johnson...Orphan Master's Son

July 17 at 7:00pm...Mark Dunkelman...Marching with Sherman

July 18 at 7:00 pm...Brendan Koerner...The Skies Belong to Us: Love and Terror in the Golden Age of Hijacking

(July 24...H.W. Brands...CANCELLED)

July 24 at 7:00 pm...Mark Pendergrast...For God, Country and Coca-Cola: The Definitive History of the Great American Soft Drink and the Company That Makes It

We Created ChávezBased on interviews with grassroots organizers, former guerrillas, members of neighborhood militias, and government officials, Ciccariello-Maher presents a new history of Venezuelan political activism.

Orphan Master's Son....Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for fiction, “Orphan Master’s Son is described as “An exquisitely crafted novel that carries the reader on an adventuresome journey into the depths of totalitarian North Korea and into the most intimate spaces of the human heart.”

Marching with Sherman....The Carter Library & Battle of Atlanta present Mark Dunkelman’s account of Union General William T. Sherman’s 1864 march through Georgia to Savannah and the 1865 campaign through the Carolinas.

The Skies Belong to Us... A shattered Army veteran and a mischievous party girl, Roger Holder and Cathy Kerkow commandeered Western Airlines Flight 701 as a vague protest against the war. Through a combination of savvy and dumb luck, the couple managed to flee across an ocean with a half-million dollars in ransom, a feat that made them notorious around the globe. Publishers Weekly calls this ““Gripping... A fascinating look at the history of skyjacking.”

For God, Country and Coca-Cola... In this fully revised and expanded edition of For God, Country & Coca-Cola, Mark Pendergrast looks at America's cultural, social, and economic history through the bottom of a green glass Coke bottle and tells the captivating story of the world's most recognizable consumer product.

All of these events are free and open to the public in the Carter Museum theater. Copies of the books will be available for purchase and signing by the authors.
