Jimmy Carter Presidential Library Re-Opens

Both the Museum and Research Facilities Open

Atlanta, GA.- The Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum has re-opened to the public following the government shutdown. Both the museum and research facilities are open during normal hours.

Unfortunately, because of the government shutdown, the opening of the exhibition "Diplomatic Patterns: A Sampling of White House China" has been delayed. We hope to finish the installation of the exhibition soon and will let you know as soon as it is ready.

Also, the Carter Library Author series is resuming with poet Billy Collins appearing on October 23rd. The event will be held in the Carter Center's Cecil B. Day Chapel at 7:00pm. Tickets are available at www.accappellabooks.com. The ticket price includes a copy of Collins' new book Endless Love.

We hope to see you soon at the Carter Presidential Library & Museum.
