Triple Hitter Week for Authors

Atlanta, GA . Next week will be a big week for book signings at the Carter Presidential Library...and it all begins on Monday.

Monday, April 7th...Kevin Young...*Book of Hours

Named one of 10 essential poetry titles for 2014 by Library Journal, “Book of Hours” is a beautiful book of both grief and birth from the award-winning poet whose work thrills his audience with its immediate emotional impact and musical riffs. . (free reading & book signing beginning at 7:00 pm)

Tuesday, April 8th... Kristie Macrakis...*Prisoners, Lovers & Spies

“Prisoners, Lovers, and Spies” is the first history of invisible ink and secret communications revealed through thrilling stories about scoundrels and heroes and their ingenious methods for concealing messages. Spies were imprisoned or murdered, adultery unmasked, and battles lost because of faulty or intercepted secret communications. (free reading & book signing beginning at 7:00 pm)

Wednesday, April 9th...President Jimmy Carter....*A Call to Action

President Jimmy Carter will sign his new book "A Call to Action: Women, Religion, Violence, and Power." It addresses the suffering inflicted upon women by a false interpretation of carefully selected religious texts and a growing tolerance of violence and warfare. Copies of President Carter’s books will be available for purchase at the Carter Library Museum Store.

Guidelines: The signing begins at 6:00 pm; seating in the museum theater prior to the signing begins at 4:00 pm. President Carter will sign up to 5 books per person (at least one of which must be his new book). He will ONLY SIGN BOOKS HE HAS WRITTEN, no memorabilia. To allow time for everyone to have their book signed, there will be no personalization or photos while in line. Please leave bags and packs at home or in your vehicle. (book signing only )
