Secret Service Agent Clint Hill Five Days in November

Atlanta, GA ... This is your chance to talk with someone who was an important part of American history. Clint Hill is a former United States Secret Service agent who was in the presidential motorcade during the assassination of John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963, in Dallas, Texas. After Kennedy was fatally shot, Hill ran from the car immediately behind the presidential limousine and leapt onto the back of it, holding on while the car raced to Parkland Memorial Hospital. This action was documented in the famous Zapruder film. Hill is the last surviving passenger of the presidential limousine which arrived at Parkland Hospital.

Hill will be joined by his co-author Lisa McCubbin to discuss and sign their two books, Five Days In November and Mrs. Kennedy and Me.

This is a special opportunity you won't want to miss. Join us at 7pm, Monday, May 5th in the Carter Center's Cecil B. Day Chapel. The event is free and open to the public.
