APRIL AUTHOR SERIES LINE-UP

Atlanta- We have a good line-up for authors in April. The topics are politics and war. All of the programs will be in the Carter Museum Theater and begin at 7:00 pm. They are all free and ACappella Books will be there with copies of the books available for purchase and signing by the author. Here's a look at the April line-up.

Monday, April 11... Andrew J. Bacevich... America's War for the Greater Middle East

Retired army colonel and New York Times bestselling author Andrew J. Bacevich provides a searing reassessment of U.S. military policy in the Middle East over the past four decades.

Tuesday, April 12...Randall Woods...Prisoner of Hope: Lyndon B. Johnson, the Great Society, and the Limits of Liberalism

Historian Randall B. Woods presents the first comprehensive history of the Great Society, exploring both the breathtaking possibilities of visionary politics, as well as its limits. Woods will be interviewed by GPB's Bill Nigut. Book TV will be there too.

Tuesday, April 26...Ibrahim Fraihat...Unfinished Revolutions: Yemen, Libya, and Tunisia after the Arab Spring

A respected commentator on Middle Eastern politics, Ibrahim Fraihat examines three countries grappling with political transitions in the wake of the Arab Spring.

Thursday, April 28...William Geroux...Mathews Men: Seven Brothers and the War against Hitler's U Boats

One of the last unheralded heroic stories of World War II: the U-boat assault off the American coast against the men of the U.S. Merchant Marine who were supplying the European war.
