Great Author Line-up for September

Atlanta, GA - September will be a wonderful month for booklovers. We've got a lot of authors coming to the Carter Presidential Library. They all start at 7 pm and only one requires a ticket. Here's what's coming.

Wednesday, Sept. 7...Nancy Mitchell...Jimmy Carter in Africa

North Carolina State University history professor Nancy Mitchell rewrites the narrative on the Carter years, insisting that the president was 'a Cold Warrior from day one.'

Wednesday, Sept. 14... Joseph Lelyveld...His Final Battle

Joseph Lelyveld traces the last, challenging months of FDR's life with a pitch-perfect blend of meticulous reporting, careful analysis, and deep humanity. In partnership with the Georgia Center for the Book and C-SPAN's BookTv

Thursday, Sept. 15... Sonny Seals and George S. Hart...Historic Rural Churches of Georgia

Historic Rural Churches of Georgia presents forty-seven early houses of worship from all areas of the state. Nearly three hundred stunning color photographs capture the simple elegance of these sanctuaries and their surrounding grounds and cemeteries.

Wednesday, Sept 21...Colson Whitehead...The Underground Railroad (TICKETED)...Carter Center's Cecil B. Day Chapel

"In his dynamic new novel, Colson Whitehead takes the Underground Railroad — the loosely interlocking network of black and white activists who helped slaves escape to freedom in the decades before the Civil War — and turns it from a metaphor into an actual train that ferries fugitives northward." NY Times. Tickets for this program at www.acappellabooks.com

Thurs. Sept. 22...Don Burris...From Tragedy to Triumph

Don Burris, the senior attorney who successfully argued the "Woman in Gold" legal case before the U.S. Supreme Court, will give a lecture on the pursuit of art works and other assets stolen by Nazi authorities before and during World War II.

Monday, Sept. 26...Daniel Demeter...Lens on Syria

From 2006–2009, American photographer Daniel Demeter traveled broadly throughout Syria, documenting the country’s warm and kindhearted people, vibrant markets, exciting landscapes, archaeological sites, historic monuments, and religious architecture. In seven chapters organized by region, Lens on Syria offers a unique visual experience of pre-war Syria and serves as an invaluable record of the country’s long history, rich heritage, and diverse culture.

Thurs. Sept. 29...Wenonah Hauter...Foodopoly

Foodopoly tells the shocking story of how agricultural policy has been hijacked by lobbyists, driving out independent farmers and food processors in favor of companies such as Cargill, Tyson, Kraft, and ConAgra.
