March Authors and More

Atlanta, GA –We've got a great line-up for March with some surprises too. Here's what's coming up/

Wednesday, March 8... Marjorie Spruill ...Divided We Stand: The Battle Over Women's Rights and Family Values That Polarized American Politics

DIVIDED WE STAND reveals how the battle between feminists and their conservative challengers divided the nation as Democrats continued to support women's rights and Republicans cast themselves as the party of family values.

Friday, March 17... Benjamin Reiss... Wild Nights: How Taming Sleep Created Our Restless World.

Wild Nights offers a profound reminder that in the vulnerability of slumber we can find our shared humanity. By peeling back the covers of history, Reiss recaptures sleep's mystery and grandeur and offers hope to weary readers: as sleep was transformed once before, so too can it change today.

Tuesday, March 21...a special evening event on efforts to wipe out diseases with free tours of the exhibition Countdown to Zero.

Wednesday, March 29... Ganesh Sitaraman... The Crisis of the Middle-Class Constitution

In this original, provocative contribution to the debate over economic inequality, Ganesh Sitaraman argues that a strong and sizable middle class is a prerequisite for America's constitutional system.

Friday, March 31...Greg Iles...Mississippi Blood... Cecil B. Day Chapel

Mississippi Blood is the enthralling conclusion to a breathtaking trilogy seven years in the making-one that has kept readers on the edge of their seats. With piercing insight, narrative prowess, and a masterful ability to blend history and imagination, New York Times bestselling author Greg Iles illuminates the brutal history of the American South in a highly atmospheric and suspenseful novel that delivers the shocking resolution his fans have eagerly awaited.

Coming in April

Saturday, April 1... Countdown to Zero: Polio...History in the Making

This is a daylong event for the whole family as we focus on the history of polio and the campaign to eliminate it.
