Friday, November 17...Khizr Khan...*An American Family

This inspiring memoir by the Muslim American Gold Star father and captivating DNC speaker is the story of one family's pursuit of the American dream. Kahn will be in conversation with Soumaya Khalifa, founder of the Islamic Speakers Bureau of Atlanta. This event is free and open to the public. However, you may reserve your seat by pre-ordering a signed copy of the book from our partner ACappella Books. (Carter Center's Cecil B. Day Chapel)

Monday, November 27...Laura Dowling...*A White House Christmas

Part extravaganza, part historical tradition the White House Christmas is always characterized by an inspiring theme, exquisite decorations and unifying messages of hope and goodwill towards all. As Chief Floral Designer during her six years at the White House, Laura Dowling was responsible for the dazzling floral pieces that made the season so memorable.

Thursday, November 30...Alison Wright...*Human Tribe

A page-turner in the most exquisite sense, this book of over 160 portraits expresses the emotive beauty and grace of the human face. Documentary photographer Alison Wright traveled to every continent to capture the diversity of the human tribe, from toddlers to those who've lived a lifetime, and from South America to Africa, Asia, and points in between.

Monday, December 4 at 5:30...President Jimmy Carter...*The Craftsmanship of Jimmy Carter

On Monday, Dec. 4th, former President Jimmy Carter will be signing his new book "The Craftsmanship of Jimmy Carter" at the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library. When Jimmy Carter was a boy, he helped break the land with a mule-drawing plow. It was slow and tedious work. But, "looking back at the end of a day and seeing how much cropland had been prepared for planting," he says, "I enjoyed a sense of accomplishment and self-satisfaction, knowing that I had done all that was humanly possible, even as a young boy, and had left behind me the visible proof of my work." He continues: "I still have similar emotions while working in my woodshop." Mercer University Press, the publisher of the 128 page book, says "The basic purpose of this book is to show the reader that even those with limited talent can develop adequate skills to produce worthwhile things. The entire process, from learning to creating, can be enjoyable. There is no limit to the skill that woodworkers can seek, and a few may uncover a level of artistry that is professionally beneficial."

In addition to his newest book, President Carter will be signing any of the other 29 books he has authored. The Carter Museum store will have copies of his books available for purchase and signing. President Carter will only be signing the books he has authored. (Limit 5 per person) He will not be signing photos or memorabilia. In order to be able to sign everyone's books, President Carter will not be able to pose for photos or personalize books. Members of "Friends of the Jimmy Carter Library" will not only receive a discount when purchasing books at the museum store, they will also be first in the signing line. Memberships can be purchased at the museum store. Doors to the book signing will open at 3:00 pm in the museum lobby. The book signing will begin at 5:30pm.

Tuesday, December 5...Bill Browder...*Red Notice

A real-life political thriller about an American financier in the Wild East of Russia, the murder of his principled young tax attorney, and his dangerous mission to expose the Kremlin's corruption. Browder glimpsed the heart of darkness, and it transformed his life: he embarked on an unrelenting quest for justice in Sergei's name, exposing the towering cover-up that leads right up to Putin. A financial caper, a crime thriller, and a political crusade, Red Notice is the story of one man taking on overpowering odds to change the world. (Cecil B. Day Chapel)

Wednesday, December 6...Charles Denyer...*Number One Observatory Circle

Quietly situated on the grounds of the United States Naval Observatory (USNO) in our nation's capital lies Number One Observatory Circle, the official residence of the vice president of the United States. From never-before-seen photos to candid conversations with former vice presidents, family members, political power players of their time, and others — Charles Denyer brings to life untold stories and memorable moments of the three-story, green-shuttered mansion covered in layers of off-white paint, and the people who were privileged to call it home.
