MARCH AUTHOR SERIES

Atlanta, GA-

We have some really interesting authors coming during March and hope you can join us. All the programs start at 7:00 pm and are free. Most will be held in the Carter Presidential Museum Theater. Here's a quick overview.

Wednesday, March 7...Giles Milton.. Churchill's Ministry of Ungentlemanly Warfare: The Mavericks Who Plotted Hitler's Defeat

In the spring of 1939, a top-secret organization was founded in London: its purpose was to plot the destruction of Hitler's war machine through spectacular acts of sabotage. The guerrilla campaign that followed was every bit as extraordinary as the six men who directed it. This is their story.

Monday, March 26...Anna Leary.. Tumor

Anna Leahy explores why and how tumors happen, how we think and talk about them, and how we try to rid ourselves of them. According to David Eagleman, Stanford neuroscientist, New York Times bestselling author, "Leahy looks a tough subject right in the eyes, and tells its story with grace, insight, alacrity, and wit."

Wednesday, March 28...Kevin Shird & Nelson Malden.. The Colored Waiting Room

In The Colored Waiting Room, activist Kevin Shird heads to Montgomery to meet eighty-four-year-old Nelson Malden and discuss the significance of recent racially motivated events. The result is a groundbreaking understanding of today's burgeoning second-wave civil rights movement.

Thursday, March 29...Anthony Ray Hinton.. The Sun Does Shine(in the Carter Center's Cecil B. Day Chapel)

This is a powerful, revealing story by a man who spent thirty years on death row for a crime he didn't commit. It is a story of hope, love, and eventually, justice.

Three other programs that might interest you.....

Thursday, March 1 at 12:30...Far East Broadcasting Company's Korea Children's Choir.... Free performance in the Carter Presidential Museum Lobby.

Thursday, March 8 at 6:30pm...Trailblazing Women Leading in Government...Carter Museum Theater

Join the Carter Presidential Library and Young Government Leaders-Atlanta for a conversation on gender parity in government. Women only hold about a third of the senior leadership positions in government, making this a very timely discussion by a group of trailblazing women. Free and open to the public.

Thursday, March 15 at 1:30-4:00...Project Zero: A Virtual Reality Experience ... in the Carter Presidential Museum Lobby.

Experience two new virtual reality videos from HuffPost's "Project Zero." Which documents neglected tropical diseases, including the work by The Carter Center on river blindness and lymphatic filariasis. The VR presentation is free and open to the public.

You can keep up with the Carter Library events on the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library page on Facebook and follow the CarterLibrary on Twitter. If you wish to unsubscribe to these news releases, simply email tony.clark@nara.gov and put "UNSUBSCRIBE" in the subject line.
