Atlanta, June 22---We have a special week coming up for our author series with three great programs.

On Tuesday (June 26) at 7pm, acclaimed Broadway Theater director Kenny Leon will be in conversation with WABE's Lois Reitzes discussing his book Take You Wherever You Go. Tickets include a copy of Leon's book and are available at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/kenny-leon-take-you-wherever-you-go-tickets-46729876318> The program will be in the Carter Center's Cecil B. Day Chapel.

On Wednesday (June 27) at 7pm, physicist Chris Ferrie will talk about his efforts to teach science to infants. He's the creator of Baby University books. He will be in conversation with Vett Vandiver, Director of Communications for Georgia Early Education Alliance for Ready Students. The program will be in the Carter Museum Theater and is free.

On Thursday (June 28) at 7pm, Nelson Mandela's grandson Ndaba Mandela will be in conversation with President Carter's grandson Jason Carter. Mandela is the author of Going to the Mountain. Tickets include a copy of Mandela's book and are available at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/going-to-the-mountain-life-lessons-from-my-grandfather-nelson-mandela-tickets-46086001471> The program will be in the Carter Center's Cecil B. Day Chapel.

Here's a look at the books:

Take You Wherever You Go.....Broadway director Kenny Leon reflects on the pillars of wisdom he learned every step of the way from the most important people in his life---from his grandmother's sagacious and encouraging motivations to the steady hand of his mother to the deep artistic and social influence of iconic American playwright August Wilson.

Baby University books.... Baby University is the simplest way to introduce toddlers (and grownups!) to BIG ideas. Perfect for scientists, aspiring scientists, and those with curious hearts and minds. Start your child off on the right quark with Chris Ferrie's Baby University.

Going to the Mountain... This is the first-ever book to tell Nelson Mandela's life through the eyes of a child who was raised by him. It chronicles Ndaba Mandela's life living with, and learning from, one of the greatest leaders and humanitarians the world has ever known.
