Thursday, March 7…7pm…Mitchell Jackson…Survival Math
In a thrillingly alive, candid new work, award-winning author Mitchell S. Jackson takes us inside the drug-ravaged neighborhood and struggling family of his youth, while examining the cultural forces—large and small—that led him and his family to this place.

Wednesday, March 20…7pm…Ed Yong…I Contain Multitudes
The Carter Library and the Atlanta Science Festival present acclaimed writer Ed Yong and a panel of four nationally known playwrights discussing his book “I Contain Multitudes: The Microbes Within Us and a Grander View of Life”. The book looks at the amazing partnerships between animals and microbes and was the inspiration for the playwrights 48 hour marathon of isolated furious writing to create four newly-formed plays all based on the book.

Friday, March 22…7pm…Sen. Doug Jones…Bending Toward Justice
U.S. Senator Doug Jones tells the story of the decades-long fight to bring justice to the victims of the 16th Street Baptist Church bombing, culminating in Sen. Jones' prosecution of the last living bombers. The event is free but seating is limited. You can reserve a seat with an advance purchase of the book at ACappella Books.

Thursday, May 18…7pm…Nathaniel Rich…Losing Earth: A Recent History
Losing Earth tells the human story of climate change in rich, more intimate terms. It reveals the birth of climate denialism and the genesis of the fossil fuel industry’s coordinated effort to thwart climate policy through misinformation propaganda and political influence. (Program Details Coming Soon)

Monday, April 22…6:30pm…Film Screening…Albatross
This film tells the story we learned of a stunning environmental tragedy taking place on a tiny atoll in the center of the vast North Pacific Ocean. Thousands of young albatrosses lay dead on the ground, their stomachs filled with plastic. The experience is devastating, not only for what it meant for the suffering of the birds, but also for what it reflected back to us about the destructive power of our culture of mass consumption, and humanity's damaged relationship with the living world.

Tuesday, April 23…Valerie Jarrett…Finding My Voice
Wednesday, April 24…James Campbell…Mississippi Witness
Friday, May 3…Film Screening…Citizen Jane
Wednesday, May 8…Sandro Galea…Well
Wednesday, May 15…George Packer…Our Man
