Summer Authors & Films

Atlanta – We have a great summer line-up for authors and films. Here's a look:

Thursday, June 6 (7pm)...Clay Risen...*The Crowded Hour

The dramatic story of the most famous regiment in American history: the Rough Riders, a motley group of soldiers led by Theodore Roosevelt, whose daring exploits marked the beginning of American imperialism in the 20th century.

Monday, June 10 (7pm)...Joseph Menn...*Cult of the Dead Cow

Cult of the Dead Cow is the tale of the oldest, most respected, and most famous American hacking group of all time. Though until now it has remained mostly anonymous, its members invented the concept of hacktivism, released the top tool for testing password security, and created what was for years the best technique for controlling computers from afar, forcing giant companies to work harder to protect customers.

Tuesday, June 11 6:30 pm)...Film Screening...*Genesis 2.0

The Swiss Consul General of Atlanta and The Carter Library present a screening of the film Genesis 2.0. The film observes the harsh and dangerous life of so-called mammoth hunters on the remote New Siberian Islands in the far north of Siberia. Swiss director and producer Christian Frei, considered one of today's most innovative and compelling documentary filmmakers, will also discuss his film.

Friday, June 14 (7pm)...Jennifer Berry Hawes...*Grace Will Lead Us Home

This is a deeply moving work of narrative nonfiction on the tragic shootings at the Mother Emanuel AME church in Charleston, South Carolina. Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Jennifer Berry Hawes provides a definitive account of the tragedy's aftermath. With unprecedented access to the grieving families and other key figures, Hawes offers a nuanced and moving portrait of the events and emotions that emerged in the massacre's wake.

Saturday, June 15 (1pm)...Jenna Brayton...*Yes She Can

Return to President Obama's White House in this New York Times bestselling anthology for young women by young women, featuring stories from ten inspiring young staffers who joined his administration in their 20s with the hope of making a difference. Meet contributors Jenna Brayton, Elle Celeste, and Molly Dillon.

Sunday, June 16 (3pm..Day Chapel)...Elaine Welteroth...*More Than Enough

The Baton Foundation, Inc., in partnership with the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum will host a conversation and book signing featuring former Teen Vogue editor-in-chief and award-winning journalist Elaine Welteroth. The book is a deeply personal coming-of-age tale: the story of a young woman reckoning with race, family, friendship, heartbreak, and learning to look inward—and upward—for strength.

Tuesday, June 18 (7pm)...Film Screening... Road Not Taken.

The Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Friends of Mimosa Hall & Gardens present a free screening of the film Road Not Taken: The Story of the Jimmy Carter White House Solar Installation.

Tuesday, June 25 (7pm)...Jim Auchmutey...*Smoke Lore

Jim Auchmutey follows the delicious and contentious history of barbecue in America from the ox roast that celebrated the groundbreaking for the U.S. Capitol building to the first barbecue launched into space almost two hundred years later. The narrative covers the golden age of political barbecues, the evolution of the barbecue restaurant, the development of backyard cooking, and the recent rediscovery of traditional barbecue craft.

Thursday, July 25 (7pm)...Josh Douglas...*Vote for US

In contrast to the anxiety surrounding our voting system, with stories about voter suppression and manipulation, there are actually quite a few positive initiatives toward voting rights reform. Professor Joshua A. Douglas, an expert on our electoral system, examines these encouraging developments in this inspiring book about how regular Americans are working to take back their democracy, one community at a time.

Saturday, August 10 (6pm in Day Chapel)...Susan Rebecca White...*We Are All Good People Here

From the author of A Place at the Table and A Soft Place to Land, a gripping, multigenerational story inspired by true events that follows two best friends through their political awakenings in the turbulent 1960s—and the repercussions of their actions after their daughters encounter the secrets they thought they had buried long ago.

Thursday, August 15...Rebecca Vaughn...*20 Years in the Secret Service

The daughter of Secret Service agent Rufus Youngblood discusses his memoir of protecting five Presidents. It includes Youngblood's first-hand account of the Kennedy assassination and its aftermath, as well as highlights from his twenty-year career in the Secret Service during which he protected Presidents Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon
