Dear Mr. Carter:

Thank you for your good letter of July 24. I appreciate the sentiments expressed in your letter, but would point out that the policy of the College, during its 61 years of existence, has been essentially limited to educational and standard-setting concerns. We have expressly refrained from political activities.

Let me repeat, however, my thanks for your thoughtful and gracious letter. With every good wish.

Sincerely yours,

C. Rollins Hanlon, M.D., F.A.C.S.
