CHRISTIAN BUSINESS MEN'S COMMITTEE

Presents
TED DeMOSS

at a

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN'S MEETING

For the past two years, TED DeMOSS, an insurance man from Chattanooga, Tennessee, a past International chairman of the board of directors of Christian Business Men's Committee International, has served as a field representative to CBMCI.

A pilot for more than 30 years, he flies his light twin-engine Comanche to many of his engagements from coast-to-coast. He has visited CBMCs all over the world, having made numerous trips overseas, three of these trips taking him around the world.

For the past 23 years he has worked in the life, accident and health insurance business, with offices and agents in Tennessee and Georgia.

DeMoss holds a degree in management engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N. Y. and was a Navy pilot in World-War 2.

He and his wife, Edith, have three daughters; two are married. They have one granddaughter.
