March 12, 1980

To Christian Bourguet

I hope you will accept my personal thanks and appreciation for your untiring efforts to peacefully resolve the crisis which presently exists between the United States and Iran. The personal courage and perseverance that you have demonstrated in this effort have been an inspiration to everyone here.

We share your own disappointment that our recent efforts were not successful, but I believe that we have made progress. I will not rest until our hostages are released and this crisis resolved, and I hope that you will continue to be a partner in this effort.

Sincerely,

Dr. Christian Bourguet
