As part of its celebration of Black History Month, the National Caucus on the Black Aged, Inc. (NCBA), chaired by Dr. Aaron Henry of Mississippi, is honoring fourteen elderly Blacks who have made significant contributions to this nation in art, education, medicine, politics and religion.

We urge you, Mrs. Rosalynn Carter, and Mrs. Lillian Carter to support this endeavor by hosting a luncheon at the White House during which the Caucus awards would be presented.

Among those being considered for awards are:

Reverend Martin Luther King, Sr.
A. Philip Randolph
Dr. Benjamin Mays
Alberta Hunter
Marion Anderson
Roy Wilkins
Rosa Parks

As you can see, the luncheon will be an event of national importance. The presidents of all the major Black organizations with national constituencies will be invited as will representatives of the major organizations servicing the elderly.

The tentative dates for a luncheon are February 21, 22, or 23, 1979.
