Dear Mr. President:

Our entire family was greatly touched that you and Mrs. Carter should have interrupted your busy lives long enough to come to New York on Friday to participate in the memorial service for my brother, Nelson. Your thoughtfulness and your warm expressions of sympathy will be remembered by all of us with gratitude for many years to come.

In connection with my recent trip to the Middle East, I am sending to you, through Zbig as you requested, notes of my conversations with President Sadat and Crown Prince Fahd. Given the latter's forthcoming visit, I think you may find the notes to be of some interest.

Sincerely,

David Rockefeller

The Honorable Jimmy Carter
