Dear Stu:

My enclosed letter to the President is self-explanatory.

Since we do not know what the outcome or wishes of the President will be, for the time being at least, it would seem advisable that only you and the President see the enclosed original.

I hope you are not exhausting yourself during these pressure-filled historic times.

Best regards.

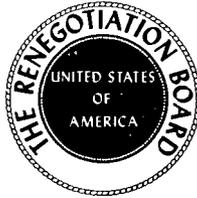

Sincerely,

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

March 13, 1978

Dear Mr. President:

After submitting my resignation of January 24th, Stu asked that I not consider it a firm decision until I met with you to discuss my reasoning. Believing the problems can be resolved, I readily agreed.

Recognizing the magnitude of demands upon your time, please consider this an extension of my resignation to May 1, 1978.

I do indeed look forward to seeing you again.

Sincerely,
