MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

To succeed Hale Champion as Under Secretary of HEW, I recommend that you nominate Barbara W. Newell. For the past seven years, Ms. Newell has served as President of Wellesley College, where she is also a Professor of Economics.

Initially trained as a labor economist, Ms. Newell is an experienced college and university administrator with broad interests in social, economic, health and educational policy. Prior to going to Wellesley, she was promoted in a succession of administrative positions at the Universities of Wisconsin, Michigan, and Pittsburg. She also taught and did research on labor history problems, comparative labor movements, and industrial relations at Purdue University and the University of Illinois. Ms. Newell graduated from Vassar College in 1951, and obtained her Ph.D. from Wisconsin in 1958.

Beyond her current responsibilities at Wellesley, Ms. Newell serves on several outside boards of a public service nature. They include the Board of Directors of the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the Board of Trustees of the Brookings Institution, the Steering Committee of Presidents to Assist the Boston School Department, the Editorial Board of Labor History, the Board of Directors of WGBH Public Television, and the Honorary Committee of American Women's Hospital Service.

Both Hale Champion and I have had two lengthy interviews with Ms. Newell. We have also consulted an extensive list of her colleagues and mentors, members of the Wellesley Board, members of other boards on which she serves, and fellow university and college presidents.

Page 2 - The President

As a result of these interviews and reference checks, I am convinced that she and I can build a close working relationship and that she will be an excellent Under Secretary.

Virtually without exception, Ms. Newell is regarded as an exceptionally intelligent, hardworking, and effective administrator. She is a cool-headed, well-organized decision-maker and an articulate public speaker. She also has a reputation for complete honesty and integrity. Although her administrative experience is confined to higher education, she has established a record of concern and action regarding issues affecting women and minorities. Moreover, going back to her upbringing as the child of the founder of the Consumers Union, she has maintained an interest in issues of social policy.

I have asked both Speaker O'Neill and Senator Kennedy about Ms. Newell. She is acceptable to both, although neither knows her well. She is registered in Massachusetts as an Independent.

I believe that Ms. Newell will bring great credit to this Department and to your Administration. I am pleased to recommend her to you.

Attached is Ms. Newell's resume

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: EDWARD SANDERS ES

SUBJECT: VIENNA SUMMIT - Movement of Soviet Jews

I am deeply concerned about any recommendation that you raise with President Brezhnev the question of the large-scale issuance of American visas in Moscow for Soviet Jews. I am concerned because we should not propose anything which would run the risk of reducing the number of Jews leaving the Soviet Union, or which would have the practical effect of reducing the freedom of choice of the Soviet Jews, and I fear that such a procedure might entail such risks.

RECOMMENDATION

I urge that the question be raised at the Vienna Summit if, and only if:

- We are convinced that the proposal and the instigation of the new procedure would not jeopardize the present rate of emigration.
- We are prepared and able to provide the staff and facilities in Moscow to expeditiously process the flow of applicants, equal to and perhaps in excess of the present rate.
- We will issue visas as they are presently issued in Rome, i.e., under parole numbers without the imposition of any additional requirements regarding the degree of relationship or citizenship of relatives living in the United States.

Unless all the foregoing conditions are satisfied, the question should not be raised because any future slow-down in the rate of emigration could be attributable to the new procedure, and even if the rate is maintained, we would run a material risk of impinging on the basic right of freedom of choice.

The issue can be raised after the Summit and in light of developments at the Summit.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: EDWARD SANDERS

SUBJECT: VIENNA SUMMIT - Movement of Soviet Jews

This is a report on the meeting referred to in my memo of June 6. I have attached a list of participants.

The following is a resume of the positions expressed by the community leaders:

- There is complete dedication to the principle of freedom of choice. The group believes that freedom of choice should be exercised at the earliest possible moment, preferably in the Soviet Union. The recommendation is therefore made that American visas be issued in Moscow to all persons choosing to go to the United States. This would do away with the practice of issuing Israeli visas to everyone who leaves, and then allowing the choice to be made in Vienna.
- Those persons going to Israel should go directly from the Soviet Union to Israel by air, or if this is not possible, then by air or train to Bucharest for immediate transit to Israel.

The belief is that this procedure would result in a larger number going to Israel than at present because it will be quicker to get an Israeli visa and there are many more possibilities of family reunification in Israel than in the United States. I believe that there are 45,000 Soviet Jews in the United States, and over 125,000 in Israel.

While recognizing that there are numerous procedural and technical questions now being studied by the State Department, on a policy level the community leadership is requesting that the issuance of American visas in the Soviet Union and the question of direct flights from Moscow to Israel, or transportation from Moscow to Bucharest to Israel, be placed on the agenda for discussion with President Brezhnev.

I want to emphasize the importance the community places on freedom of choice, and therefore no consideration is being given to shifting the reception centers to Israel and postponing the time of decision until after arrival in Israel. It is the view that this would have various negative implications and seriously undermine freedom of choice. I personally strongly agree with this position.

I should also mention that one of the fears of the community is the fact that all Soviet Jews leave on Israeli visas, and then over two-thirds opt for the United States. This creates a situation which the Soviets might seize upon as a pretext to reduce the flow of immigration.

MEMORANDUM FOR

HONORABLE W. MICHAEL BLUMENTHAL
THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

SUBJECT: The visit of Chinese Vice Minister Zhang Jingfu
to the United States

Your memorandum of June 5, 1979, directed to the President requesting assistance in the acquisition of an Air Force plane for the forthcoming visit of the Chinese Finance Minister, Zhang Jingfu, was staffed to Hugh Carter's and my office for handling.

I have reviewed this matter with Mr. Stan Shapiro and have advised him that we will provide assistance in the acquisition of an Air Force aircraft to handle this mission. Of course, it will be a Treasury revenue mission.

It would be appreciated if future requests regarding aircraft would be forwarded to the White House Military Office for initial consideration.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: The visit of Chinese Vice Minister Zhang Jingfu
to the United States

Between July 10th and 20th the Chinese Finance Minister, Zhang Jingfu, will be visiting the United States as my guest. He will be leading a delegation of about twelve and I want to reciprocate the warm courtesies he extended to me when I visited China in February. Moreover, I am obligated to provide for his security and well-being during the trip.

To facilitate Minister Zhang's travel between Washington and other financial centers, I wish to place at his disposal a government aircraft. The alternative to using a U.S.A.F. plane is to lease an aircraft from a private corporation as was done by Jim Schlesinger for Vice Premier Khang's current visit. The cost of an Air Force plane for the itinerary I have planned for Minister Zhang would be about $26,000 as compared to perhaps $78,000 by commercially leased aircraft.

It is a nuisance to have to bother you on details such as this but I am told that I need your approval in order to secure a U.S.A.F. plane for this visit.

Rick, we may not have to bother the President on this one. Normally, requests for aircraft come through my office, and if I turn it down and the person requesting it thinks it is important enough, then they take it to the President.

Secretary Blumenthal has not consulted with us on this one. What I think we should do is check the request out, and see if it can be approved without bothering the President. OK?

THE SECRETARY OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20201

JUN 11 1979

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

To succeed Thomas Morris as Inspector General at HEW, I recommend that you nominate Eugene Eidenberg, the current Deputy to Jack Watson. Mr. Morris, an extraordinarily able veteran public servant who has asked to be relieved of line management responsibilities, will become a Special Assistant to me.

Prior to going to the White House, Mr. Eidenberg served at HEW for a year and a half--first as Executive Assistant to Hale Champion and then as the Deputy Under Secretary for Intergovernmental Affairs. He has also been Vice Chancellor of the University of Illinois in Chicago, Deputy to the Mayor of Minneapolis, and Assistant Vice President for Administration of the University of Minnesota. While on the faculty at Minnesota, he was awarded a Congressional Fellowship by the American Political Science Association to work in the offices of then Majority Whip Hale Boggs and Vice President Hubert Humphrey. Mr. Eidenberg graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1961, and obtained his Ph.D. in Political Science from Northwestern University in 1966.

Beyond his professional and educational experience, Mr. Eidenberg has been on several public service boards and commissions. They include the Board of Directors of the Urban Coalition in Minneapolis, the Governor of Minnesota's Commission on Crime Prevention and Control, the Board of Directors of the American Civil Liberties Union in Illinois, and the Committee on Law, Citizenship, and Education of the American Bar Association. Between 1973 and 1977, he was also Vice Chairman and later Chairman of the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission.

No responsibility within this Department is more critical or sensitive than that of the Inspector General. Mr. Eidenberg brings a number of experiences and qualities which suit him unusually well for the job. Both Hale Champion and I worked with him closely when he was at HEW, and we have great confidence in his judgment, loyalty, and integrity. He is knowledgeable about HEW's programs, not only in Washington but also in the ten regions. In addition, he is also experienced in state and local government, Congressional relations, and the criminal justice system.

We have considered several dozen candidates for Inspector General. In my view, Mr. Eidenberg outclasses all of the others. I am delighted to recommend him to you. I believe that he has the experience, the commitment, and the character to do a superb job.

Attached is Mr. Eidenberg's resume.

UPDATE: NICARAGUANS FORMALLY ACCUSE THE PANAMANIAN

June 11, 1979

This afternoon at a special OAS session, the Nicaraguans formally accused the Panamanian government of supplying arms to the FSLN. They used the same arms displays at the OAS as they had used on the Hill last week. The Nicaraguan tactic of refusing to accuse the Panamanians at the OAS meeting a week ago remains unexplained.
