Attached for your information is Ambassador Bob Strauss' letter of resignation as the Special Representative for Trade Negotiations which was effective close of business on August 8, 1979.

In order to designate Alonza McDonald as your Acting Special Representative for Trade Negotiations to be effective August 9, 1979, it is recommended that you send Ambassador Strauss a hand-written letter accepting his resignation.

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

Although we spoke by phone with respect to my resignation from the Special Trade Representative post, I wanted to take this opportunity, on my return to Washington, to more formally express my appreciation to you.

Because of your unfailing support and leadership, we were able to conclude a multilateral trade agreement that will provide a clear and fair framework for world trade in the decade ahead. For the first time we will have not just liberalized trade but codes of conduct in critical areas.

It has been both an exciting and fulfilling responsibility for me to work in this area and I will always be grateful to you for your confidence and direction.

I now look forward to the great challenge of helping carry out your commitment to the process of peace in the Middle East.

Sincerely,

Robert S. Strauss

Dear Charley,

The Chrysler situation is an ideal opportunity to solve a fundamental problem of American industry.

There is no question in anyone's mind that Mr. John Riccardo, the Chief Executive Officer of Chrysler made a fatal judgement several years ago when he failed to recognize the impact of small imports and the need for fuel economy. Despite this massive death blow to Chrysler - Mr. Riccardo continues to command and draw his generous salary and perquisites. Mr. Riccardo therefore has kindly paved the way for a public airing of the "captive board". Stockholders have no representatives on the corporate board. Its normally selected by - and tightly controlled by - the Corporate Chief Executive Officer. The net effect of this lack of stockholder representation is a personal fiefdom for many company politicians who do not also happen to be good chief executives.

It's an opportunity to clean up a problem that affects a goodly portion of the private sector. You might call it "pin the tail on the donkey". Politically - it should be very popular. Millions of stockholders and employees of all industry should be delighted.

Sincerely,

James Wallace

Friday, August 17, 1979

11:30 a.m.

The Oval Office

From: Frank Moore *f.m./pd*I. PURPOSE

To discuss Virginia judicial selections with Sen. Byrd.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS AND PRESS PLAN

A. Background: There were four judicial vacancies for the State of Virginia. Senator Byrd set up a commission which recommended all white males to fill these vacancies.

We have selected and nominated two individuals from the slates recommended by Senator Byrd.

We are prepared to nominate a 3rd from his slates, Harry Michael for the Western District.

We intend to depart, however, from the Senator's slates in filling the vacancy in the Eastern District. Your intention, following the recommendation of Judge Bell, is to nominate James Sheffield who is a State Court Judge and is black.

The ABA has not looked at either person and there have been no FBI clearances even though you tentatively approved each a few weeks ago. ABA and FBI clearances have been withheld pending the Attorney General's meeting with Senator Byrd (which took place a couple of weeks ago) and this meeting with you and Senator Byrd.

B. Participants: The President, Senator Byrd, Frank Moore

C. Press Plan: White House Photo Only

III. TALKING POINTS

1. You should thank the Senator for his support for your merit selection concept. He quickly set-up a merit selection commission in his state. You should point out that the recommendations of Byrd's commission were good and capable and some you have already chosen.

2. You should point out, however, that you have made a commitment ~~to yourself~~ to appoint at least one black judge for each of the Southern states.

Because of this commitment, you intend to move from Senator Byrd's list and appoint James Sheffield.

3. After having fulfilled this personal commitment, you should tell Senator Byrd that you will return to his list to fill future vacancies as they occur.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: The Vice President WJ
SUBJECT: Eximbank Lending to China (U)

Following up on this morning's breakfast discussion, I directed OMB to prepare for your review a succinct statement of the position I propose to take with the Chinese on Eximbank lending. In response, John White has forwarded the paper at Tab A. (U)

As part of my review of bilateral issues with Vice Premier Deng and Premier Hua, I would plan to cover our economic relations and our plans to submit the US-PRC Trade Agreement to the Congress before the end of the year. Additionally, I would propose to inform the Chinese leaders that you have authorized me to propose to them the establishment of an Exim credit arrangement for China of $2 billion to cover lending over a period of 2 to 5 years. (C)

State, Treasury and OMB concur in this proposal. No supplemental appropriations are required now. The purpose of proposing the credit arrangement, which I believe has political value in our relations with the Chinese, is to inform them that we are prepared to provide credit support, on a case-by-case basis, to promote our growing trade relationship. (C)

RECOMMENDATION

That you authorize me to proceed with the Exim proposal as outlined by John White in my talks with the Chinese. (U)

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Subject: Cuban Political Prisoner Program

When Attorney General Bell authorized the Cuban political prisoner parole program of 3,500 prisoners plus family, he committed the United States to process 400 prisoners plus family per month, which was the rate of release from prison announced by Castro. At that rate the program would have been completed by September, 1979.

That goal has not been achieved for two reasons: (1) time necessary to complete United States Government security clearance and immigration screening requirements; and (2) Cuban Government failure to produce prisoner releases and names rapidly and regularly so that a continuing monthly flow of 400 prisoners plus family could be established.

ok (Castro is reportedly prepared to release all remaining prisoners by September 1. If he then provides the United States all these names, the second problem will have been overcome. On the first problem, I have directed that United States procedures be further streamlined and that expedited processing begin immediately. The agencies with responsibility for the program -- Justice, State and the CIA -- are committing additional personnel and resources in anticipation of the volume which will be produced by the final prisoner releases. Under these conditions, the program will be complete before the end of this calendar year and the non-aligned nations can be so informed. I recommend this course of action.

The alternative is to waive outstanding security clearances, and immigration screening of persons currently in process in Havana and prisoners still to be released. This would require a crash program to fly prisoners to Miami and to conduct all screening and processing in the United States.

I recommend against this course for several reasons.

(1) Screening and processing prior to arrival in the United States is desirable because, once here, those persons found ineligible could not be returned to Cuba. Our turndown rate has not been high, but a number of applicants have been screened out for reasons of security, nature of the crime, and non-family relationship. (2) The Cuban situation does not present humanitarian or political circumstances more compelling than other refugee situations like Southeast Asia, where the screening process is as rigorous as the current Cuban program. (3) Attorney General Bell obtained agreement from Congress to a minimum cost program. A crash program would require United States sponsored transport, care and maintenance in Miami during processing, and related obligations not contemplated at the outset. (4) It would require a massive United States effort for dubious return.

Of course, if you believe a crash program is imperative for foreign policy reasons, it can be accomplished with the risks and costs as indicated above.

Business Week, August 20, 1979

"Is Chrysler The Prototype? The No. 3 U.S. Auto Maker's Problems May Be Catching"

The pressures of fuel shortages and more stringent government regulation are threatening the existence of the auto industry's weakest company, which employs 131,000 workers. Even more ominous, Chrysler may be writing a script for Ford to follow, as they both slip further behind GM in downsizing cars to meet demand. Business Week recounts Chrysler's history of management mistakes, which have so weakened the company that it cannot survive both the normal dips in auto sales and the steadily increasing cost of regulation. A likely scenario for the company has Chrysler giving up parts of itself, but not the entire company, to foreign buyers. Only Chrysler's highly profitable defense business could stand alone regardless of the rest of the company.

"Chrysler: No Bailout...But A Better Way"

Business Week's editors argue that Chrysler should not be granted a government bailout because the company's problems are chiefly the result of its own management mistakes. Instead, they say Congress should loosen federal emissions regulations, the UAW should relax restrictions that impede plant productivity; Chrysler executives should accept smaller salaries and bonuses; and banks holding Chrysler loans should convert those loans to non-voting preferred stock. In addition, Business Week's editors say, Chrysler stockholders should forego present and some future dividends.

"Reviving Mass Transit"

Many of the nation's public transit systems "are run by incompetent political hacks who lack the ability to put the money already available to them to good use," Business Week's editors say. As interest in public transportation revives around the country, several steps must be taken to solve the systems' problems. They include: raising salaries to attract qualified people; training programs to enable transit authorities to grow their own managers internally; removal of unqualified political appointees and an end to excessive demands by unions for money and benefits.

"The Earnings Squeeze Is On"

Some businesses see distinct signs that, a month into the third quarter, the earnings squeeze is under way, Business Week reports. Companies in some recession-vulnerable industries are scaling back third-quarter forecasts. And even industries that boast big order backlogs say they expect disappointing earnings later this year as the sales downturn hits their customers and prompts them to chop inventories. However, overall inventory levels are more restrained now than they were at this point in the 1974-75 recession, and this should cushion the downturn.

"Conflict Over A GSA Phone Deal"

Despite calls for more competition in the telephone business from Congress and other government agencies, the GSA has been quietly working with Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. on a $400 million plan to revamp the federal telephone system in the Washington, D.C., area. The sole-source procurement plan has been in the works but under wraps for more than three years, Business Week reports. The contract is being roundly criticized by other communications equipment suppliers who fear they will be frozen out of the government market in Washington.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRANK MOORE

FROM: DAN TATE DT
SUBJECT: Senator Inouye's Support for the President

You may recall that several weeks ago, I urged that the President call Senator Inouye to thank him for expressing support and for volunteering to help legislatively and politically in the coming months. The President could not do this because of the press of Camp David business.

Senator Inouye has called again. He gave a personal recommendation for his former press secretary who wants to work in the campaign. He said he could not overstate his high opinion of her and her abilities. She has been a newspaper reporter, local TV anchorperson, and a press secretary. She sincerely wants to help in the campaign effort, and the Senator feels she would be excellent. He wants to know how to get her plugged in with the right people in the organization. She is in Hawaii and would be happy to come to Washington for interviews, etc., but she understandably would not want to make the substantial expenditures necessary to get to D.C. if there is no place or possible place for her. Inouye wants to know (1) with whom should she speak and (2) do we think we could use her in some capacity. He wants to be personally involved and we should pass information through him. I will follow through.

At the end of the conversation, he expressed dismay with the bad press the President is getting -- he is disturbed that the President is given credit by the press for being a good and sincere person, but is being called incompetent. He said he is waiting for us to give him the green light to go to Senator Kennedy and tell him to "fish or cut bait" -- to become a candidate or to state that he will not run. Inouye used the word "us" (give "us" the green light, "we" want to help, etc.) He also said that he had checked and that a majority of the Senators up for re-election preferred to have the President on the ticket rather than Senator Kennedy. This, in my opinion, should not be attributed to him and the less said about the source the better.

Senator Inouye is on the team. His volunteering should be acknowledged and we should use him in Hawaii and in the Senate. You should let him know that you are aware of and appreciate his help. And the President should too.

TO IMPLEMENT A PROGRAM TO REDUCE OUR EXCESSIVE DEPENDENCE ON FOREIGN OIL IS NECESSARY TO PRESERVE OUR NATION'S SECURITY. WE MUST MINIMIZE DIVISIVE DEBATES AND DELAY.

OUR GOALS ARE: FIRST, MAXIMUM CONSERVATION -- THE ELIMINATION OF WASTE;...AND, SECOND, INCREASED PRODUCTION OF ENERGY IN OUR OWN COUNTRY. THE CONGRESS AND, INDEED, EVERY AMERICAN MUST ACT BOLDLY AND AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TO REACH THESE GOALS.

I AM TODAY TAKING PRESIDENTIAL ACTION THAT WILL SIGNIFICANTLY INCREASE PRODUCTION OF AMERICAN CRUDE OIL RESERVES, LIFTING PRICE CONTROLS ~~ON AND ON~~ DEREGULATING HEAVY CRUDE OIL.

THIS EXECUTIVE ORDER, COUPLED WITH OTHER RELATED ACTIONS, WILL ADD 500,000 BARRELS PER DAY TO OUR DOMESTIC PRODUCTION OF HEAVY CRUDE OIL BY 1990. MUCH OF THIS INCREASE WILL OCCUR MUCH EARLIER, DURING THE CRITICALLY IMPORTANT PERIOD BETWEEN NOW AND 1985 -- AND WILL MAKE AN IMMEDIATE CONTRIBUTION TO OUR NATIONAL SECURITY.

OUR NATION IS BLESSED WITH AN ESTIMATED 10 BILLION BARRELS OF HEAVY CRUDE OIL RESERVES. MUCH OF IT IS IN CALIFORNIA, WITH ADDITIONAL FIELDS IN MISSISSIPPI, LOUISIANA, OKLAHOMA, TEXAS, AND WYOMING.

HOWEVER, THIS VERY THICK, HEAVY OIL IS VERY EXPENSIVE TO PRODUCE. THE COMBINATION OF THESE HIGH COSTS OF PRODUCTION AND PRICE CONTROLS HAVE IMPEDED DEVELOPMENT OF THIS VITAL DOMESTIC ENERGY SOURCE.

TODAY'S ACTION WILL END THIS PROBLEM. FINALLY, WE WILL BE ABLE TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF A DOMESTIC ENERGY SOURCE WHICH CAN BE THE EQUIVALENT OF ALASKA'S PRUDHOE BAY OIL FIELDS.

HEAVY CRUDE OIL IS ONE FUEL FOR WHICH WE CAN PROVIDE IMPORTANT PRODUCTION INCENTIVES WITHOUT INCREASING INFLATION. THE MORE DOMESTIC OIL WE PRODUCE, THE LESS OUR NATION MUST RELY ON UNCERTAIN AND EXPENSIVE SOURCE OF IMPORTED OIL.

(--WITH THIS ACTION TODAY,.....)

WITH THIS ACTION ~~TODAY~~, I HAVE TAKEN ALL OF THE MAJOR STEPS ON WHICH I CAN ACT ALONE TO ACCELERATE DOMESTIC PRODUCTION. IT IS NOW UP TO CONGRESS TO ACT ON THE OTHER PROPOSALS I HAVE MADE TO CUT OUR IMPORT DEPENDENCE.

PENDING BEFORE CONGRESS ARE A NUMBER OF VITALLY IMPORTANT MEASURES THAT COULD CUT OUR DEPENDENCE ON FOREIGN OIL IN HALF BY 1990. THE MOST IMPORTANT OF THESE IS THE WINDFALL PROFITS TAX.

THE ISSUE IS SIMPLE: WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM DECONTROL OF DOMESTIC OIL -- THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, OR THE OIL COMPANIES?

AS I HAVE EMPHASIZED OVER AND OVER AGAIN, WE NEED THE REVENUES FROM THE WINDFALL PROFITS TAX TO DEVELOP SYNTHETIC FUELS, TO HARNESS SOLAR ENERGY, TO SPUR ENERGY CONSERVATION, TO DEVELOP MASS TRANSIT, AND TO HELP OUR POOREST CITIZENS COPE WITH RISING ENERGY PRICES.

THE SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE, HOWEVER, IS CURRENTLY CONSIDERING SOME VERY BROAD EXEMPTIONS TO THIS TAX -- LOOPHOLES BIG ENOUGH TO SAIL AN OIL TANKER THROUGH.

IN MANY CASES, THESE EXEMPTIONS WOULD NOT EVEN INCREASE DOMESTIC OIL PRODUCTION. IN OTHER CASES, THE SMALL INCREASE IN PRODUCTION WOULD BE MORE THAN OFFSET BY A COST TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE OF TENS OF BILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN THE NEXT DECADE.

I HAVE MADE MY POSITION CLEAR. ^{MY PROPOSALS HAVE BEEN MADE} AS I TRAVEL THROUGH THE HEARTLAND OF AMERICA DURING THE COMING WEEK, I INTEND TO EXPLAIN TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THE MAGNITUDE OF THE CHOICE NOW BEFORE THE CONGRESS.

I AM CONFIDENT THAT THEY WILL SHARE MY CONVICTION THAT WE NEED AN EFFECTIVE WINDFALL PROFITS TAX, WITHOUT MAJOR EXEMPTIONS AND LOOPHOLES.

ONLY THEN CAN OUR NATION BE ASSURED OF THE RESOURCES FOR TRUE ENERGY SECURITY.

STATEMENT ON DECONTROL OF HEAVY CRUDE OIL -- 8/17/79

- 7 Secret A

I am today taking Presidential action that will significantly increase production of American crude oil reserves, ~~By signing this Executive Order, which has the force of law, I am immediately~~ lifting price controls on and deregulating heavy crude oil.

~~[This action will provide a much-needed special incentive for the full development of this important domestic resource, which is difficult and particularly expensive to produce. In taking this action, I am fulfilling a pledge that I made to the American people during my July 15 speech to the nation.]~~

This Executive Order, coupled with other related actions, will add 500,000 barrels per day to our domestic production of heavy crude oil by 1990. Much of this increase will occur, much earlier, during the critically important period between now and 1985 -- and will make an immediate contribution to our national security.

Our nation is blessed with an estimated 10 billion barrels of heavy crude oil reserves. Much of it is in California, with

A ^{to implement} ~~to evolve~~ ~~without delay~~ a proposal to reduce our ^{excessive} dependence on foreign oil is necessary to preserve our nation's security.

We must minimize divisive debates and delay.

Our goals are: ^{first,} ~~both~~ maximum conservation - the elimination of waste; ^{second,} and increased production of energy in our own country.

The Congress and, ^{indeed, every} ~~the~~ American ^{boldly and} must act ~~without~~ as soon as possible to reach these goals.

additional fields in Mississippi, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas and Wyoming. However, this very thick, heavy oil is ^{very} extremely expensive to produce. The combination of these high costs of production and price controls have impeded development of this vital domestic energy source.

Today's action will end this problem. Finally, we will be able to take ~~full~~ advantage of a domestic energy source which can be the equivalent of Alaska's Prudhoe Bay oil fields.

Heavy crude ^{oil fuel for which} is one ~~area~~ where we can provide important incentives to production without increasing inflation. The more domestic oil we produce, the less our nation must rely on uncertain and expensive sources of imported oil.

With this action today, I have taken all of the major steps ^{on} which I ~~as President, acting~~ ^{can} alone, ~~can take~~ to accelerate domestic production. It is now up to Congress to act on the other proposals I have made to cut our import dependence.

Pending before Congress are a number of vitally important measures that could cut our dependence on foreign oil in half by 1990. The most important of these is the windfall profits tax.

The issue is simple. Who will benefit from decontrol of domestic oil -- the American people or the oil companies? As I have emphasized over and over again, we need the revenues from the windfall profits tax to develop synthetic fuels, to harness solar energy, to spur energy conservation, to develop mass transit and to help our poorest citizens cope with rising energy prices.

The Senate Finance Committee, however, is currently considering some very broad exemptions to this tax -- loopholes big enough to sail an oil tanker through. In many cases, these exemptions would not even increase domestic oil production. In other cases, the small increase in production would be more than offset by a cost to the American people of tens of billions of dollars in the next decade.

I have made my position clear. As I travel through the heartland of America during the coming week, I intend to explain to the American people the magnitude of the choice now before the Congress. I am confident that they will share my conviction that we need an effective windfall profits tax, without major exemptions and loopholes. Only then can our nation be assured of the resources for true energy security.

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

President Carter today awarded the National Security Medal to Leslie C. Dirks, deputy director for science and technology of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The National Security Medal was established by President Truman in 1953 and is awarded for "distinguished achievement or outstanding contribution" in the field of intelligence relating to national security. The citation for the award to Dirks notes "his outstanding contribution in creating and directing a major intelligence program of great national importance." It further recognizes that the "leadership and creativity" displayed by Mr. Dirks resulted in "an extraordinary scientific accomplishment of extreme value to the Intelligence Community and to the nation."

Dirks, 42, attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in physics in 1958. He attended Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar and received a BSc in physics in 1960. He entered on duty with the CIA in 1961. He has served in a variety of assignments, and was named the deputy director for science and technology in June 1976.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT
FROM: James T. McIntyre, Jr.
SUBJECT: 1980 Foreign Affairs Budget Pressures

I want to alert you to the major 1980 budget problem building up in the foreign affairs area. Your budget decisions last November called for $13.7 billion in budget authority for foreign affairs programs. Decisions made subsequently have added more than $400 million to that amount (see details attached). In addition, OMB has in hand or is likely to receive additional supplemental requests as follows:

- About $350 million for PL 480 food aid.
- As much as $200 million for Nicaragua and other Central America countries.
- About $900 million for Eximbank program expansions.

On the outlay side, the increases are even more dramatic. Decisions to date plus reestimates have already added $1.2 billion and the pending supplementals, if accepted, could add another $500 million in outlays. In total the increased outlays would be more than 20 percent above the January budget for foreign affairs. If you were to accept an increase this large for the relatively unpopular foreign affairs programs, it could significantly increase the difficulty of holding the budgetary line on a range of popular domestic programs.

There are also pressures to limit your flexibility to reprogram within whatever 1980 funds Congress ultimately appropriates. For example, I understand that you were asked by Cy recently to assure Sudan that it would receive the proposed 1980 aid levels regardless of congressional cuts, and similar efforts appear to be underway to lock up AID funds for Central America. This kind of decision will limit our ability to reprogram scarce 1980 funds to meet new needs and add further to pressures for supplementals.

While a number of off-cycle decisions are inevitable in the international area, I am concerned over the ad hoc approach which the agencies appear to be taking. In my view, the magnitude of the problem requires that, except for truly extraordinary cases, 1980 budget add-ons be considered as part of the fall budget review when the plans of all foreign affairs agencies are clear and after regular congressional appropriations actions are completed.

The process for Presidential review of future budget commitments which you established has helped in controlling the problem. Nevertheless, given the magnitude of the problem, OMB will be re-issuing the instructions describing the future budget commitments process to appropriate agencies. With the possible exception of the PL 480 proposal, (where logistical problems may preempt proposed food shipments if we delay action) I recommend that you not approve any further commitments and supplemental requests until completion of the fall budget review. It might also help mitigate this budget problem if you were to remind agency heads who approach you for exceptions of the necessity to coordinate all budget related proposals with OMB before forwarding them to you.

Dear President Jimmy Carter:

First of all, I want to commend you for your very positive and forceful presentation last evening. In addition, I could not agree with you more that we need to do everything possible to unite Americans and challenge America to seek out and encourage a current positive America as well as work toward every possible positive for the future.

Once again, while I have disagreed with you in a few instances in the past, I have done so privately and have scrupulously avoided any public criticism of you as a person or as my President. As a matter of fact, even though I felt some of your advisors were unfair to you as well as to the people of Maine with the immoral and unconstitutional confiscation of land approach on the Indian Claim here in Maine, I kept trying to defend you by saying that I felt advisors had misled you as I did not feel you as our President or the Jimmy Carter mutual friends knew, would knowingly participate and/or support penalizing a million citizens of Maine denying them due process of law or equal rights under the law through a judicial determination. In addition, I feel the White House did not extend me during the time I was Governor or the people of Maine, then or now, the same courtesy and fairness you expected and received as Governor of Georgia from the President Nixon Administration as it relates to the proposed billion dollar Dickey-Lincoln boondoggle which mutual friends as well as environmentalists in Georgia and Maine tell me was almost identical with the Flint River Project. Here again, I felt you were a victim of individuals around you who were not being fair to you and perhaps practicing, albeit unintentionally, the same "palace guard" approach of the very White House Staff that interestingly enough was more fair to you as Governor than I feel this Governor of the people of Maine received at the time our recommendation was submitted.

Despite these two instances, I have never spoken out in public criticism of you and did publicly praise and commend your initial efforts as President in the areas of energy, reduction of the bureaucracy, balancing of the federal budget. Despite my positive public expressions of support of you in these instances, I have never publicly criticized you even though you have failed to date to do as you promised. While it would be easy to blame the Congress and much of it is justified, the fact remains that you have added to unnecessary bureaucracy and your own White House Staff as well as the federal regional programs...which you told the nation's Governors in 1975 as well as the people of this country when you were seeking the Presidency, that you would reduce.

However, despite all of this, you are my President and I still pledge to do everything possible in every way possible to serve you and this country I love so deeply. However, please reflect on these points because in addition to energy, I encounter expression from all over this country in my business travel and communications to the effect that you have not kept your word. There is also the repeated question as it relates to your staff and other advisors to the extent many people express a concern with what they construe to be your lack of confidence or respect or your own insecurity with people from a greater cross-section of America. On this note, I have also been concerned. Unfortunately, though many elected officials have privately expressed this same concern and that they are not comfortable with more than a few if any, they apparently have not been as candid or as direct with you as I have tried to be. By the same token, I have never been more impressed with the decency or integrity or apparent ability of people such as Attorney General Griffin Bell most of all, and also Bob Lipshutz and Gene Eidenberg. but candidly, Mr. President, I believe your ability to regain confidence in Americans is more dependent than you might realize on your willingness and your courage to clear the decks as much as possible and surround yourself with a less political and more experienced representative group of individuals.

One final note of concern which should be as much a concern for you as it is for me and many others. While you have indicated you are now listening and want to listen to Americans, I am not certain you will ever see this letter or that the enclosed telegram will ever be brought to your attention. I say this even though I spent many hours thinking through how I might best help you help this country prior to sending this telegram. In addition, I followed this up with telephone calls to your White House Staff and while I am sure the telegram was received early enough to have been brought to your attention, it is sad commentary, but based on my experiences as a Governor of one of the 50 states, now as a private citizen of this great country, I have question as to whether you actually receive or hear the type of input that many people who have wanted to help you have tried to have reach your eyes or ears. I also realize the magnitude of your responsibilities and your tight time schedule and I do believe you and Rosalynn are two of the most conscientious and apparently decent human beings that have ever occupied the White House.

Finally, you and Rosalynn and your family have made a great sacrifice to serve America, and I could only wish you the very best. In addition, I will always try to help and support you, or whomsoever is serving as President, in every way possible. You have my continued prayers and best wishes.

Very truly yours,

Jim Longley

PMS PRESIDENT JIMMY CARTER
WHITE HOUSE DC

DURING YOUR TALK TONIGHT I URGE YOU TO CONSIDER TELLING AMERICA THAT YOU ARE PLACING THE BEST INTEREST OF THE NATION AND THE FREE WORLD FIRST AND THE POLITICAL FUTURE OF JIMMY CARTER AND OTHER POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS SECOND. ON THAT NOTE I WANT TO OFFER THE CANDID OBSERVATION AND SUGGESTION THAT TO THE EXTENT YOU TRULY WANT TO SOLVE AMERICAS CANCEROUS PROBLEM OF INFLATION AND TAXATION AS WELL AS ENERGY PROBLEMS THAT YOU WILL BEST BE ABLE TO RESOLVE OR AT LEAST RELIEVE AMERICAS PROBLEMS BY ANNOUNCING YOU WILL NOT SEEK A SECOND TERM. THIS WOULD ALLOW YOU TO DEVOTE YOUR TALENTS AND YOUR TIME TOTALLY TO SERVING AND SOLVING AMERICAS PROBLEMS. THIS WOULD ALSO ALLOW YOU TO CLEAR YOUR OWN HOUSE AND REPLACE THOSE APPOINTMENTS MADE PRIMARILY BECAUSE OF POLITICAL OR PERSONAL REASONS WITH PEOPLE WITH GREATER TALENT OBJECTIVITY AND VISION TO BETTER HELP YOU SERVE AMERICA. WHILE UNDOUBTEDLY SOME SHOULD BE RETAINED INCLUDING HOPEFULLY GRIFFIN BELL MY FEEDBACK AND OBSERVATION IS THAT UNLESS YOU IMMEDIATELY DEMONSTRATE THROUGH THIS TYPE ACTION THAT YOU PLACE AMERICA AND THE FUTURE OF THE FREE WORLD FIRST THEN YOU WILL END UP WITH AN EVEN GREATER REJECTION AND LOSS OF CONFIDENCE THAN YOU SUFFER TODAY. BY CONTRAST I FEEL THIS COURAGEOUS AND COMMENDABLE APPROACH WOULD RANK YOU CURRENTLY AS WELL AS IN FUTURE HISTORY AS ONE OF AMERICAS VERY GREATEST PRESIDENTS. PLEASE THINK ABOUT IT AND MEANWHILE YOU ARE IN MY THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS AND HAVE MY CONTINUED OFFER AND PLEDGE TO TRY TO HELP YOU AS MY PRESIDENT IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE

Mich. Governor Says State Won't Follow Temperature Guides

LANSING, Mich., Aug. 16 (AP)—Agreeing with a state official who calls the plan "ill-conceived," Gov. William Milliken says the state will not adhere to federal standards for building temperatures.

Commerce Director William McLaughlin had recommended the move to Milliken, saying the federal government's proposed rules leave many questions unanswered and don't address many areas.

The rules, covering nonresidential buildings, call for temperatures of 78 degrees in summer and 65 in winter. They also call for 105-degree hot water.

Milliken said Wednesday the administrative cost of the program to the state would be more than $250,000 above what the federal government would make available to help pay for it.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: JACK WATSON Jack

SUBJECT: Jesse Jackson

Electrostatic Copy M for Preservation Purp.

Following is the status of each proposal that Jesse Jackson made to you in a recent memorandum.

Jobs and Economic Development: Establish a set-aside program for black colleges to improve their research capacity.

- I have asked Bo Cutter of OMB and Frank Press of the Office of Science and Technology to assess the possibility of establishing such a program.

I am also requesting an update from Louis Martin on the progress the agencies have made in responding to your rather strong directive of January 1979 to strengthen black colleges. In that directive you specifically asked agencies to consider awarding research contracts and grants on a non-competitive basis.

Revitalization of Urban Areas: Appoint a single person to implement and coordinate government programs which aid inner cities.

- Last year you appointed me Chairman of the Interagency Coordinating Council to make more effective use of existing urban programs. I consider implementing your Urban Policy as a major priority and continue to be pleased with our record. I will take steps to try to focus more media and public attention on our urban actions and initiatives.

DETERMINED TO BE AN ADMINISTRATIVE MARKING CANCELLED PER E.O. 12958, SEC. 1.3 AND ARCHIVIST'S MEMO OF MARCH 16, 1983

Jay 8/3/80

Alienation of Youth: Direct Dr. Mary Berry, Assistant Secretary of Education, to assist Operation PUSH in its efforts to register annually three million young people to vote.

- Jesse is a great advocate of voter registration, and he and I have had several discussions on how we can work together.

For your information, during FY 1979 we will have awarded $1 million of Office of Education (OE) funds and $400,000 of Department of Labor funds to Jesse's PUSH Excel program. We're proposing another million of OE funds for FY 1980.

Bob Lipshutz's office has informed me that it is unlikely we could use federal funds to support voter registration efforts. I've suggested to Jesse that he and I sit down with representatives of Operation Big Vote, a coalition of minority groups who launched a major voter registration campaign for the 1976 election and are gearing up to do the same for 1980. The Coalition is composed of major Black leaders, including Vernon Jordan and Benjamin Hooks, in addition to representatives from the DNC, RNC, AFL-CIO, Congress and the A. Phillip Randolph Institute. Because the Coalition is well organized and has access to private funds, I want Jesse to benefit from both.

Appointment of Black Federal Judges: Ensure the routine presence of Black judges in federal courtrooms.

- I have asked Bob Lipshutz to give me our most recent statistics on appointments of black and minority federal judges and the outlook for further such appointments.
