VETERANS ADMINISTRATION
OFFICE OF THE ADMINISTRATOR OF VETERANS AFFAIRS
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20420
September 21, 1979

TO : The President
THRU : Rick Hutcheson, Staff Secretary
FROM : Administrator of Veterans Affairs

Appointment with the President

When President Truman asked General of the Army Omar N. Bradley to become Administrator of Veterans Affairs at the end of World War II, he made one of the most popular appointments of his administration and he gave strength and prestige to an agency to which millions of deserving citizens were soon to be looking for help.

General Bradley developed the Veterans Administration into a concerned and effective provider of that help and thirty-three years later he is still an inspiration to those who work for VA.

On October 16, 1979, it will be my pleasant duty to act as host to General Bradley and other guests as VA dedicates the Administrator's Conference Room in this building in his name.

I would like to respectfully request that General Bradley be granted about a 15 minute appointment with you sometime around noon on the day of the dedication.

I would be most happy to bring General Bradley to your office for the courtesy call and perhaps a picture session.

Your earnest consideration of this visit with America's only living five-star General is deeply appreciated.
