MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: EDWARD SANDERS ES

SUBJECT: Jacob Timerman

I know that Secretary Vance has endorsed a meeting between you and Jacob Timerman, who was recently released from Argentina. I wish to join in that recommendation. I think it would be a very beneficial visit and a vivid demonstration of your human rights policy. The thought also occurred to me that it might also be appropriate to invite Elie Wiesel, Chairman of the Holocaust Commission, who made a special trip to Argentina recently while Timerman was still under house arrest.
