President Jimmy Carter
The White House
Washington, D.C.

cc: Dick,
Thanks!
J.

Dear President Carter,

Barbara and I are most grateful to you for the time you took from your busy schedule to meet with us. It was a great pleasure for us to see you again; and meeting you in the Oval Office will certainly be a memorable experience for Barb's parents, Paul and Shirley Huckin. Additionally, your gifts of the pendants and cuff links were a lovely surprise and will always be treasured.

We had hoped that you might be returning to Jackson Hole this past summer but understand your reasons for having made other plans. However, if at any time during your travels you have even a brief opportunity to stop by this part of the country, please know that "our boat" is always there at your disposal.

Also, Mr. President, we want you to know how proud we are of you and of Mrs. Carter, of what you have accomplished, and of the importance you place on human rights, world peace, and honesty and integrity in the Government. Please know that our thoughts are with you now during this time of terrible crisis in Iran. We have complete faith in your perspective and decisions.

You not only have two strong supporters out here in Jackson Hole, but two friends as well.

Sincerely,

Dick Barker
