The Honorable Jimmy Carter
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

The national black leadership is taking every possible measure to sustain in the Congress your commitment to extend sanctions against Rhodesia until free elections are conducted.

Thank you for inviting a number of us to the White House on November 14 to discuss our mutual concerns over United States/Rhodesia policy.

Sincerely yours,

Randall Robinson
Executive Director

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM : AL MCDONALD
SUBJECT: Business Council

In talking with Bob Strauss this afternoon on our work with the business community, he urged that you consider inviting over to the White House, ideally for a dinner, the members of the Business Council who will be in Washington for their annual meeting on December 12. As Bob correctly pointed out, we will have about 300 of the leading businessmen of the country here and one could hardly imagine a better occasion to lay the foundation for their specific support, at least through the Democratic primaries.

Bob says that Regie Jones is very enthusiastic about this possibility. Undoubtedly, Bob will be bringing this to your personal attention shortly.
