Dear Don:

Enclosed find the composite photograph of the 1961 Kappa Alpha Fraternity from Auburn University, which you asked the President to autograph, on behalf of Robert Davie.

The President was delighted to comply with your request, as you can see by his note on your letter, which is also enclosed.

With every best wish,

Sincerely,

Frank Moore

Dear Mr. President:

Enclosed please find the 1961 Kappa Alpha Fraternity composite from Auburn University. Your mother was the house mother that year and a constituent of mine, Robert Davie, would like to have your autograph on his composite.

I hope you are able to comply with this request. After autographing, please return to my senate office for mailing to Mr. Davie.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

DONALD W. STEWART
United States Senator
