MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

From: Richard Harden
Subject: Presentation of Committee Report

On February 29, 1980 the Committee on Information Network Structure and Functions for the Executive Office of the President will present its final report. This committee was formed to work with my staff in determining the best approach for installing an electronic network to serve the Executive Office of the President. The group is composed of the most knowledgeable people in the country on this subject and they have served at no expense to the government. The committee members are:

Michael L. Dertouzous (Chairman)
Director, MIT Laboratory for Computer Science

Thomas Pyke
Director, Center for
Computer Systems Engineering

Joel Aron
IBM Corporation

Robert M. Metcalfe
3Com Corporation

Richard desJardins
Applications Data Service
Study Manager

John O'Neil
Manager, Program Project, Exxon
Enterprises

Howard Frank
President, Network Analysis
Corporation

William Sutherland
Manager, System Science Lab
Xerox Corporation

Henry S. McDonald
Consultant, Systems Architecture
Research

Albert Vezza
Head, Programming Technology
Group MIT

I would like to request a brief five-minute meeting where they could present you with a copy of their report and have their picture taken with you. If you are agreeable, I will work with Phil in arranging an appropriate time.
